

Ottawa, January 4, 1928.

Miss Jean Graham,
"Canadian Home Journal",
Toronto 2, Ontario.

Dear Madam:

I enclose herewith a print of the painting of Mr. Mackenzie King's mother, a photograph of which Mr. King is having prepared, and will send to you within the course of a few days. At the time Mr. King signed his letter to you, he asked me to have prepared a photograph of the painting referred to. This is being done.

I thought, however, that you would be interested in having the enclosed print at hand. You may be interested to know that Mr. King used it for his Christmas card a year or two ago.

Yours faithfully,

Private Secretary.
