

Toronto ATC - Well we only have the pilot on his flight plan, I don't know whether there's any passengers on board or not.
Prov. Police - Well what is his name, do you know?
Toronto ATC - Wade, W-a-d-e.
Prov. Police - Pilot Wade. Alright then you do that and if we hear anything we'll certainly get in touch with you.
Toronto ATC - Right. Thanks very much sir.
Prov. Police - Your welcome.
Toronto ATC - Goodnight.
Prov. Police - Goodbye.
Toronto ATC - ND 0448.
Tor. Operator- Long distance.
Toronto ATC - This is Junction 8782.
Tor. Operator- Yes.
Toronto ATC - I want to call Barrie 4141.
Tor. Operator- Hold the line please. Barrie 4141. They don't answer.
Toronto ATC - Operator, that's the Barrie Provincial Police.
Tor. Operator- Oh, I see.
Toronto ATC - Possibly they are out on something else and should probably be reporting back.
Tor. Operator- Yes.
Toronto ATC - Could you phone them several times later and call us.
Tor. Operator- Yes, we will.
Toronto ATC - Thank you. ND. 0452.
Tor. Operator- Long distance.
Toronto ATC - This is Junction 8782.
Tor. Operator- Yes.
Toronto ATC - I want to call Belleville 90 9-0.
Tor. Operator- Hold the line please.
Bel. Operator- Belleville.
Tor. Operator- 90.
Bel. Operator- Well there's no one there operator. Who is it your calling?
Toronto ATC - Calling the Provincial Police.
Bel. Operator- Anyone in particular sir?
Toronto ATC - No, anyone on the Provincial Police.
Bel. Operator- Well there's no one at the office after 1:00 o'clock in the morning. Could I ring you Inspector Thompson, would he do?
Toronto ATC - Well is he on duty?
Bel. Operator- No, there's no one on duty. We have to call them at their residence.
Toronto ATC - Oh, I see.
Bel. Operator- So if there's anyone in particular that you'd like to get.
Toronto ATC - Well who would take the reports. This is Malton Airport calling. We have a lost aircraft that's down somewhere, we presume between Ottawa and Toronto.
Bel. Operator- I see, well just hold on a minute eh.
Toronto ATC - Alright.
Bel. Operator- Hello.
Toronto ATC - Yes.
Bel. Operator- You have to have them right away eh.
Toronto ATC - Well what I find out is if anybody, a farmer say, has turned in
