

In connection with the above course will be brought in the reading of drawings; the construction of iron, steel, etc.; the study of fuels and their combustion, the study of tools and their parts.

In place of blacksmithing, Senior boys are sometimes allowed to take mechanical drawing or to spend their time in some of the trade departments of the school.

GIRLS — Sewing — The object of the Senior course in sewing is to enable each young woman graduating from Hampton to draft, cut and make her own dresses.

Drafting — Drafting and cutting of skirts and waists.

Dressmaking Making models of dresses which afford practice in designing, putting together and finishing lined suits. Each pupil makes a wash dress for herself

Senior Class in Manual Training.

HOME TRAINING FOR GIRLS.

Basket Making.

The principal objects of the training given to girls at Hampton Institute are as follows:—First, To enable them to make good homes; Second —To send out strong teachers, well-equipped for both academic and industrial teaching.

HOUSEWORK. All the housework in the girls' dormitories and teachers' rooms, including chamber-work, sweeping, dusting and scrubbing is done by the girls.

LAUNDRY WORK.—In the school's steam laundry the girls do all the washing and ironing of the student's boarding department and the Teachers' Home. The following