

glory and of His Father's also. He comes accompanied by all the host of heavenly angels, and "on His vesture and on His thigh" shines the inscription, "KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS."

He comes to take possession of the kingdom which He has purchased at an infinite price; He comes to redeem and take to Himself the subjects of His kingdom who have been faithful and loyal to Him through all the ages. At that time the righteous dead will be raised from their graves, and the righteous living will be changed, and all, with immortality coursing through their veins, shall be "caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord."

Such themes are worthy of careful consideration by every one who desires to make his home in the earth made new, where the throne of God and the Lamb will be finally located, where Christ is our King and Elder Brother; with God for our loving Father, and with the redeemed of all ages, and the angels of God as our companions, we shall dwell forever free from sorrow, sickness, pain, and death.

May this be our happy lot.
