ENDOWMENT AT 70.

Endowment Assurance at a slight advance on Ordinary Life Rates.

These Policies are non-forfeitable and incontestable after two annual payments.

This plan of Assurance, since its introduction, by the Dominion Life Assurance Company, has met with much favor. Its peculiar advantages are:

1. A low premium, practically an all life rate.
2. The application of profits (allotted every five years from date of Policy) to shorten the endowment term.
3. No forfeiture possible, after two annual payments.
4. The policy is self-extending, that is in case of failure to pay the third or any subsequent premium on time, the policy does not lapse forthwith as in many other companies, but the insurance is continued till the RESERVE is exhausted. Thus to a person joining at age of thirty and paying premiums for five years, the extension would be four years and two months more, giving over nine years insurance for five premiums.
5. The policy is almost unconditional as to travel or occupation.
