The Famous Fleury Plows

Nos. 2L, "Dandy," 13 and 15 A (one horse) TAKE THE LEAD wherever introduced, and though most plow manufacturers HAVE TRIED TO COPY one or all of them, FLEURY PLOWS STILL LEAD.

Mr. Bernard McCabe, Strange, Ont., took out two Fleury Plows ON TRIAL on July 5, 1909. To-day he made settlement for them, and states that NO TWO BETTER PLOWS WERE EVER BUILT; they are SIMPLY PERFECT. They are EASY TO HOLD and VERY EASY ON THE HORSES.

and the work could NOT BE BETTER. He expects to want another plow soon, and it will be a FAMOUS FLEURY PLOW.

A new agent, under date of April 21st, 1909, writes us: "Sent your sample plow out ON TRIAL, and sold it. I was out and held it myself, and say, IT IS THE BEST PLOW I EVER HELD, and Mr. B. says the same. I will have NO TROUBLE SELLING THEM. Send two MORE PLOWS at once.

Imitations are INFERIOR. No less so IN PLOWS than in OTHER THINGS. Buy only the ORIGINAL and BEST.

THE SPICE OF LIFE.

"Are you the master of this house?" asked a stranger, addressing the young married man. "No," said the young man, with a deep sigh. "My wife has just put the master in the cradle."

Mr. F. Litchfield, the well-known art dealer, exhibited some panels of old tapestry at the Manchester Jubilee Exhibition. Wanting one of these returned, he wired: "Please send panel eight by ten—Venus—Adonis—Litchfield." The departmental head of the exhibition was away, and his clerk returned the message to the post office as "not understandable." The post-office people, struck with a bright idea, then transmitted the telegram to the City of Litchfield, and received the following reply: "No such firm as Venus and Adonis known here. Try Manchester."

On one occasion when a guide in the Northern woods was accompanying an amateur huntsman from a city which shall be nameless, the guide was so unfortunate as to be shot in the leg by the novice.

Immediately the wounded man fell and lay flat; whereupon the huntsman ran to him in great distress, exclaiming:

"For Heaven's sake, man! Tell me you are not hurt!"

"No, I ain't hurt much," was the surly response of the guide.

"Then, why don't you rise? Can't you?"

"Oh, I can get up all right," said the guide. "Only I was afraid you'd let me have the other barrel."

It is related that as the famous Dr. Johnson was driving in a carriage through London one rainy day he overtook a poor woman carrying a baby, and without any protection from the weather. Making the driver stop, he invited the woman to enter the carriage with her child, which she did. After she was seated the doctor said:

"My good woman, I think it most likely that the motion of the coach will wake your child in a little while, and I wish you to understand that if you talk any baby-talk to it, you will have to get out and walk."

As the doctor anticipated, the child soon awoke, and the tormented mother exclaimed to it:

"Oh, the little dear! Is he going to open his eyes-py-sy?"

"Stop, the coach driver," shouted Johnson, and the woman had to get out and finish her journey on foot.
