BISHOP JAMOT'S VISIT TO KEENE.

On Saturday, the 19th inst., His Lordship the Bishop of Peterborough, accompanied by Father Keating, visited Keene, to administer the sacrament of Confirma tion on the following day. About twothirds of the entire congregation met their Bishop some four miles on the west side of the town, and in buggies or on horse back accompanied His Lordship to the church. The enthusiasm and affection church. The enthusiasm and affection displayed by the people was greater than I ever witnessed on a similar occasion. After entering the church Bishop Jamot took his seat within the sanctuary, when the following address was read to him by Mr. John O'Keefe on behalf of the conception of St. Laby's Church Keener. gregation of St. John's Church, Keene:

gregation of St. John's Church, Keene:
May it please your Lordship:—We, the congregation of St. John's Church, Keene, with feelings of profound respect and sincere affection, approach your Lordship to-day to welcome you amongst us and to extend to you in the language of our race a "flead Millo" guage of our race a "Cead Mille failthe." We thank you especially for the object of your visit, that is, to administer to our children the sacrament of Confirmation, a sacrament by which they will receive superna-tural aids to hold fast to the Faith once delivered to the apostles, and to preserve that Faith amidst worldly temptations and evil associations. We know well that that Faith will last until the consummation of ages, for the powers of hell shall never prevail against the Church which Chris tablished and commissioned to preach

We know we have the covenant of God, that the words which God put into the mouth of His Church "shall not depart out of it thenceforth and for ever,' that we have the oath of the Most High that "when the mountains shall be moved and the hills shall tremble" that even then postles in its orthodoxy. But it is our first anxiety that our children's children should possess that Faith and be obedient characteristics of our congregation. Such is the result of the principles instilled into us from early childhood, and fortified by the Sacrament of Confirmation.

We pray that the candidates the conditates of the chief is the result of the principles instilled into us from early childhood, and fortified by the Sacrament of Confirmation.

We know the zeal for which we now thank you have cese. We know the zeal for which we now thank you has not been specially exer-cised for us. Already during your short reign every part of your dicese has felt your anxiety for their spiritual interests and all acknowledge your labors and your goodness. Truly you labor as one having goodness. Truly you labor as one naving a consciousness that you must one day render an account of your stewardship, and as one whose only hope on earth is that when the dark night of death closes round you, your Divine Master may find you a worthy shepherd, with your flock securely penned, and not one lamb entrusted to your care lost through your fault. In conclusion we beg to express our sincercaffection and attachment for your Lord ship personally, our deep reverence and veneration for the exalted position you occupy, and through you our devotion and obedience to the successor of St. Peter, the See of Rome, the source of all

On Sunday at half-past ten o'clock the sacrament of confirmation was administered to fifty-three persons. After confirmation the bishop spoke on several subjects interesting to the congregation, and dwelt especially on temperance. At the conclusion of his discourse all who were confirmed that day took a pledge against all intoxicating drinks for five years. Many also of the congregation, besides those confirmed that day, took the same pledge. Confessions were heard on Sunday evening and two Masses were celebrated on Monday morning, at each of which many persons received Holy Communion. At ten o'clock on Monday morning His Lordship, accompanied by Father Keating, returned to Peterboro. GRAND PROCESSION OF CARRIAGES.
On Sunday last Father Walsh, having announced to his congregation that Bishop Cleary was about visiting the mission, for the purpose of administering the Sacrament of Confirmation and assisting also ment of Confirmation and assisting also personally at the exercises of the mission conducted by the Oblate Fathers, a meet-ing was convened by the parishioners after nass and arrangements made to give His

It was understood that the Bishop would proceed by carriage from Belleville on Thursday evening; accordingly, the gentlemen appointed to carry out the wishes of the congregation in the matter, determined to meet His Lordship at some distance from the town and accompany him in procession to the priest's residence. Every available vehicle was put into requisition, whilst the young was put into requisition, whilst the young men and those unable to find carriages assembled at the outskirts of the town with banners, torches and music; and forming in regular order, the long train of

The ladies and children of the congregation lined the board walk, and strewed flowers beneath the Bishop' feet as he proceeded to the church, vested in his Pontificals. May it please Your Lordship,—With feelings of joy we welcome your Lordship to our beautiful church this evening. We are delighted beyond expression at the presence of our Bishop on such an auspic-ious occasion. The favor thus conferred upon us cannot be sufficiently appreciated. We have with us the Shepherd whom God in his proper said with a such parts. we have with us the Snepnerd whom God in his mercy and wisdom selected to attend specially to our spiritual welfare. As Catholics we firmly believe in the infallibility of our Divine Church, we consequently tremble here in we consequently tremble here in presence of our Saviour under sacra presence of our Saviour under sacra-mental veils in the Tabernacle. As a very slight return for that incomprehensible love, we honor and love our bishop to please Him who honors and oves and deems your Lordship worthy of nolding such a high, holy and representative office. We are anxious to receive and treat our shepherd in accordance with the duty imposed on us from on High. Not even a hair's breadth do we wish to deviate from the narrow path. Our feelings towards your Lordship cannot adequately be conveyed in words. As in the past, an unswerving allegiance and a most devoted attachment to the mitre and the

Before asking the blessing of your Lord-Before asking the blessing of your Lordship on ourselves and on our families, we would beg to assure your Lordship that our new pastor, the kev. Father Walsh, has already endeared himself to us all. He is most zealous and indefatigable in the performance of his priestly duties. Cultured, refined and sociable in private life, his practical piety has already borne good fruit. He is most solicitous about the salvation of the souls of the flock consigned to his care. We fervently hope salvation of the souls of the flock consigned to his care. We fervently hope that he may be rewarded for his trouble in arranging this mission, by the proud consciousness that not one member of this large congregation allowed the present glorious opportunity to pass, without effecting a reconciliation with his Maker. CORNER STONE OF A RELIGIOUS HOUSE BLESSED.

CONVENT OF THE GREY NUNS, OTTAWA.

Sunday last at 2 p. m. the grounds of the Mother House of the Grey Nuns of Ottawa presented a very animated appearance. Crowds of friends and admirers of these zealous nuns had assembled to witness the blessing of the corner-stone of a new building, part of which is to serve as community chapel until a permanent one more spacious and beautiful shall arise at some future day, forming the appropriate centre of a group beautiful shall arise at some future day, forming the appropriate centre of a group of buildings devoted to piety and charity.

Sermons in English and French suited to the occasion were then delivered by Rev. F. Barrett, O. M. I., and Rev. F. Fillatre, O. M. I., of the College of Ottawa. Rev. Father Barretttook for his text these words of Exodus, III, 5: "The place whereon you stand is holy ground." After showing how fully they applied to the place and occasion, he thus exhorted his hearers to give practical expression to their esteem for the good nuns and their work, to their interest in the success of the present undertaking. It is doubtless a cause of great joy to you, beloved brethren, to see the Grey Nuns of Ottawa enlarging their Mother House and people, led by the band, entered the streets of Trenton, which were thronged with eager faces, anxious to catch a glimpse of the Bisher de arrong you and with what limited your share of the good work by helping Around this sacred spot you see grouped several of the noble works of charity of the Grey Nuns of Ottawa. Here is St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum where destitute children find a safe and comfortable home with loving, intelligent care of body and soul. Here the nuns have a flourishing High School, which has frequently won high praise, as it is doing excellent work for the spiritual and temporal welfare of the rising generation. Here is the building that long served as an hospital for patients suffering from fever or other contagious diseases, from none of which these devoted nuns have ever shrunk. Here is the General Hospital where, as Here is the General Hospital, the name implies, heavenly charity receives all, affords relief and tender, comparing the intelligent care to all. Rev. F. Fillatre, who followed in French, spoke with his usual stirring earnestness on the many reasons for which the citizens of Ottawa should bless Divine Providence for having established in their midst the Religious Community of the Grey Nuns, and show their gratitude by generous gifts as each passed and struck the corner stone.

For instance, the government intended granting a subsidy of $750,000 for the construction of the Island Railway and granting $250,000 to the graving dock, which would be a million of money in all. There were many parts of the older provinceswhich required development—take for instance the Ottawa Valley—before giving special privileges to other provinces.

I desire to thank you for the ditigence and earnestness with which you have performed your duties during this protred session.

The Bill for the regulation of shop, saloon and tavern licenses must have the effect of preventing the unrestrained sale of intoxicating liquors in every prevince of the Dominion, and affords an efficient system for its successful operation freed from the suspicion of political bias or control; while at the same time it will not unduly interfere with the rights of those who had engaged in the trade under the authority of Legislative enactments.

Last Sunday, the feast of Corpus Christi, was celebrated with due solemnity at St. Joseph's Church. High Mass was celebrated at half past ten, followed by a procession and benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. Some thirty little girls robed in white and bearing baskets of flowers, which they strewed along the sacred aisles during the procession, presented a lively picture—a beautiful type and memory of the triumphant entry of the King of Heaven into Jerusalem, a symbol of his entry through the gates of faith into the hearts of all true Christians. In the evening after Vespers there was a May procession, followed by an able and logical discourse from Rev. Fr. William, on the subject of Transubstantiation.

"LOYAL," an Englishman, writes to the New York Sun, threatening that if Walsh and Sheridan and Tynan are not extra-dited, "the great statue of liberty, which they are about to erect at the mouth of this harbor, will, at a not far distant day furnish a target for the guns of Admiral furnish a target for the guns of Admiral Seymour and his subordinates." As he adds that "an Englishman's opinion commands respect wherever he goes," we may consider this a settled thing; but the Admiral must, in common politeness, wait for Admiral Nicholson, U. S. N., to get nome and be ready to sail around the bombarding fleet, cheering its work, before ne begins hostilities. A STRANGE rumor is current in Montreal that the Canadian Government holds certain affidavits containing the full hiscertain amounts containing the full his-tory of the murder of Thos. D'Arcy McGee. The Post of that city calls for the publication of testimony. Up to this time, the crime has lain at the door of Fenianism. But it is affirmed now that the parties who were really interested in the death of D'Arcy McGee, were certain rascals who, pretending to work with the rascals who, pretending to work with the Fenians, were really Government informers. The murdered statesman had more than once warned the Irishmen of Canada against these scoundrels, and had publicly stated that in his possession were papers sufficient to consign them to prison and even to the gallows. It is to be hoped that whatever evidence is in the hands of the Government will be brought to light; but if the rumor be true, it is not likely.

IT evidently seems to England a point agained if an Irish bishop is restrained by the Pope from taking part in the Irish National movement. We do not believe the reports about the censure of Arch-Manitoba and the North-West Territories.

The amendments to the laws respecting the Militia will tend to improve the discipline, training and military education of that invaluable force.

The consolidation and amendment of the Statutes relating to the management of the Customs, while protecting the honest trader against fraudulent and dishonest competitors, will free the commerce of the country from some of the restraints imposed on it by the previously existing laws.

The readjustment of the tariff and the reduction of duties on the raw materials used in our manufactures, together with the that of the secret societies. The Bishop are sure to move in legitimate courses only. Like everything England does concerning Ireland, she blunders criminally, and helps to make herself still more bitterly and completely detested.

With here and there a notable exception, he turned the other cheek. The world called this cowardice. So be it. But it has given the negro the victory. By steadfastly pursuing it he has gained no uncertain Home Rule, but on the contrary, fundamental, civil and political rights. The list of officers will appear in next issue. Rev. J. J. Gehl, President of Branch 21, St. Clements, has been absent in Formosa for a few weeks. His place at St. Clements was supplied by Rev. Father Wey. The officers of this Branch, and also of our other new Branches, are doing their work well, showing that they were properly instructed by the organizing Deputies. If all our C. M. B.A. members holding offices in our Branches would "study up" their work and properly attend to it, the Grand Secretary would be relieved of a great deal of extra correspondence and labor. We must again instruct our Recording Secretaries, in filling out applications for Beneficiary Certificates, to be sure and give the full name of the party or parties to whom the Beneficiary is willed. The Supreme Recorder advises us that he cannot issue Beneficiary Certificates to members neglecting this.

SAM. R. BROWN,
Sec'y. of Grand Council.

The dropiscal swelling is all leaving my body, but I am still taking the medicine for it. If more people would apply to you for your treatment there would not be so many die with lung disease.

In a few Words.

We do not claim that ZOPESA will cure everything, but as a LIVER REGULATOR, and when the stomach and organs need invigorating to healthy action in case of weak digestion it will cure. For habitual costiveness, which affects the whole system and the head, to a degree that unfits one for work. ZOPESA acts certainly, quickly and pleasmily. Those trying it the first time are surprised how quickly it relieves the whole system; a single dose relieves.
