HOW TO BE HAPPY

"Think happy thoughts!"
Think always of the best.
Think of the ones you love, not those whom you detest;
Think of your victories, not your failures here;
The smile that pleased, not of the hurtful sneer;
The kindly word, and not the harsh thing spoken;
The promise kept, and not the promise broken;
The good that you have known, and not the bad;
The happy days that were, and not the sad.
Think of the rose, and not the withered flower,
The beauty of the rainbow, not the shower.
Think happy thoughts!"

THEY SMILE AT ME

Sometimes I wonder why they smile so pleasantly at me,
And pat my head when they pass by as friendly as can be;
Sometimes I wonder why they stop to tell me How-d'-do,
And ask me then how old I am and where I'm going to;
And ask me can I spare a curl, and say they used to know
A little girl that looked like me, Oh, years and years ago;
And I told Mamma how they smiled and asked her why they do,
So she said if you smile at folk they always smile at you.

I never knew I smiled at them when they were going by,
I guess it smiled all by itself and that's the reason why;
I just look up from playing if it's anyone I know,
And they most always smile at me and maybe say Hello;
And I can smile at anyone, no matter who or where,
Because I'm just a little girl with lots of them to spare;
And Mamma said we ought to smile at folk, and if you do,
Most always they feel better and they smile right back at you.

And when so many smile at me and ask me for a curl,
It makes me think most everybody likes a little girl;
And once when I was playing and a man was going by
He smiled at me and then he rubbed some dust out of his eye,
Because it made it water so, and said he used to know
A little girl up in his yard who used to smile just so;
And then I asked why don't she now, and then he said "You see—"
And then he rubbed his eye again and only smiled at me.

MARGARET'S SPECIAL MESSAGE

Dear Friends:—The message sent a few weeks ago for homes for our sick girls has been answered with the usual whole-hearted love of my readers, and it is with deep gratitude that I acknowledge these offers. Two young girls will go out this week for a month's love and care. I am fortunate indeed in having such loving friends who answer my every call. The Sunshine chicks are also doing great work in scattering love and cheer on the sick and lonely. God bless their loving hearts. Constantly letters arrive telling me that the mothers and school teachers also are finding that the Sunshine helps the little ones and big ones too, to be brighter and sweeter at home and school, and that wherever there is a Sunshiner the sweet spirit of helpfulness is at once manifest. Should I not indeed thank God that I have been chosen as the instrument through which these glorious gifts of love and service are "Passed on," and know that our Sunshiners, small and big, rich and poor, are living in the spirit of that command, "Love ye one another" and how counting their blessings and making a practice of cheering and blessing the weak, the sick, the sad and the lonely? May your blessing be multiplied a hundred fold is the wish of Yours lovingly,

In Sunshine or shade,

MARGARET.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

A Friend:—Accept our hearty thanks for the kindly gift of $2.00 from a friend. I would be glad to have your name, not for publication, but so that I could enroll you as a member of Sunshine.

Miss Velma Rice, Binscarth, Man.—Dear Child: Your very sweet message was a great delight to Sunshine. Give my love and thanks to your sister. Yes, I hear very frequently from my sick little ones. Clarence is very sick indeed and some days is unable to look up, but still he is wonderfully bright and cheerful. God bless you for your loving thought of him.

Miss Francis Arneil, Longlake, Ont.—Many thanks for your kind letter. If you will send the names of your two brothers I will enroll them as members of our Sunshine army. Your home must be very pretty and it would be lovely to camp on Longlake. Write often.

Mrs. J. B. Duncan:—The clothes will be very acceptable. It would be necessary to send them to The Grain Growers' Guide, marked Sunshine Department.
Hearty welcome to the following and thanks for kindly gifts sent in:—Mrs. Pegego, Cypress River, paper; Mrs. J. E. B., box of clothing; Mrs. E. Brown, Boissevain; Flossie Pollock, Creelfield, Man.; Agnes Brownhill, Turner; A Friend; Elsie Hazel Cliffe, children's clothing; Mrs. Frank Knight, Creelman, Sask.; Ruby Fretting, Tregarva, Sask.; Mrs. R. L. King; Lillian Russell, Ninette Sunshine; Willa Boyse, Neta Munm, Alberta (please full address); May Metcalfe, Clare Keer, Cheadle, Alberta; Pansy E. Chew, Huronville, Sask.; R. J. Gordon, Baldur, Man.; T. G. Love, Wellwood, Man.; Jessie Hunter, Mayfield, Man.; Therese Cowley, Saltcoats; Leona McBee, Longview, Alberta; Zoe Gutteridge, Hamiota, Man.; P. H. Cox, Beaver P.O., Man.; Alberta Barwood, Hurdman Lodge, Sask.; Julia Jacobson, Lewisville, Alberta; Miss Mollie Averill (age 7 years), Ellesmere Farm, Clonwilliam; Mrs. A. Orr, Allegia Bergstrom, Wauchope, Sask.; Lillie Jenkins, Black Pool, B.C.

You never can tell when you do an act
Just what the result will be;
But with every deed you are sowing a seed,
Though its harvest you may not see.
Each kindly act is an acorn dropped
In God's productive soil;
Though you may not know, yet the tree
shall grow
And shelter the brows that toil.

Big Ben

Don't set your mind—set Big Ben

Don't bother your head about getting up. Leave it to Big Ben.

You ought to go to sleep at night with a clear brain—untroubled and free from getting up worries. You men, if you are up to date farmers, work with your brains as well as with your hands. Such a little thing as "deciding to get up at a certain time in the morning" and keeping it on your mind often spoils a needed night's rest and makes a bad "next day." Try Big Ben on your dresser for one week. He makes getting up so easy that the whole day is better.

Big Ben is not the usual alarm. He's a timekeeper; a good, all-purpose clock for every day and all day use and for years of service.

He stands seven inches tall. He wears a coat of triple-nickel plated steel. He rings with one long loud ring for 5 minutes straight, or for 10 minutes at intervals of 20 seconds unless you shut him off.

His big, bold figures and hands are easy to read in the dim morning light, his large strong keys are easy to wind. His price, $3.00, is easy to pay because his advantages are so easy to see. See them at your dealer.

5,000 Canadian dealers have already adopted him. If you cannot find him at your dealer's, a money order sent to Wm. L. Hall, Illinois, will bring him to you duty charges prepaid.

$3.00
