House in committee on His Excellency's speech.

Pursuant to the order of the day, the House was put into a Committee of the whole on the consideration of His Excellency's Speech at the opening of the present Session.

Mr. Thomson in the Chair.

The House resumed.

Resolutions reported.

The Chairman reported that the Committee had agreed to a series of Resolutions, which he was directed to submit for the adoption of the House.

The Report was received.

The Resolutions were read, as follows:—

Resolutions.

Resolved—That this House do humbly thank His Excellency for his Speech from the Throne at the opening of the present Session.

That this House most sincerely accord with His Excellency in his expression of condolence on the loss which has been sustained in the demise of his late Gracious Majesty, William the Fourth, whose memory will long be held in filial gratitude and respect by the inhabitants of this Province.

That this House avail themselves of this opportunity to express their heartfelt pleasure in the Accession of Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, to whose Person or Throne they cheerfully offer the pledge of their enduring loyalty and unshrinking support.

That this House feel it unnecessary to say, that they participate with His Excellency in the pain experienced by His Excellency at the altogether unexpected and unnatural rebellion that has recently appeared in this and one other District of the Province. That His Excellency has truly declared, that, looking to the enviable state of happiness and prosperity of the Country, this attempt on the part of a few wicked and misguided men is too remarkable not to demand serious
