

Concrete walks need no repairs

THEY are not only best at first but are cheaper in the end than any other kind of walk. They are clean, permanent and safe.

This free book "What the Farmer can do with Concrete" tells all about concrete walks and how to build them, and a score of other things needed on every farm.

DICKSON INQUEST WAS OPENED BY DR. BOYCE

Coroner Dr. Boyce on Friday afternoon opened at Tickell's morgue, an inquest on the remains of the late John S. Dickson of Campbellford.

Campbellford at the curling rink. Deceased leaves a widow in the west. He had bought on Thursday afternoon a ticket for Paris, Ont., where he was going to spend some time on an outing. Dickson was a native of Virginia, U.S.A., but was a naturalized Canadian.

HALF A DOZEN TURNED OUT

The meeting of property owners along Front Street, and Bridge street, was not attended by a large number. Indeed not more than half a dozen turned out into the storm to meet with the public works committee and the mayor.

One opinion was expressed that a test be made of pavements by laying certain sections of Front street with one or other of the principal paving materials.

FATALITY WAS ACCIDENTAL

The inquest into the death of the late Charles Carpenter came to an end last evening before Coroner Yonkman. The jury's verdict was that Carpenter came to his death as a result of injuries received when struck by a gravel train on the C.P.R. construction line in the town of Trenton on January 31st, and died in Belleville hospital on Tuesday, February 3rd, from injuries.

MARKET REPORTS

From Saturday's Daily Anyone who stood out on the market square this morning had a trying time of it trying to keep near his load of market produce by reason of the wind. The outdoor offerings were unusually large in number if not in variety.

TORONTO WOMAN WELL AGAIN

Freed From Bearing Down Pains, Backache and Pain in Side by Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Toronto, Ont.—"Last October, I wrote to you for advice as I was completely run down, had bearing down sensation in the lower part of bowels, backache, and pain in the side. I also suffered terribly from gas. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now entirely free from pain in back and bowels and am stronger in every way.

Consider Well This Advice. No woman suffering from any form of female troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

BELLEVIILLIANS IN WINNEPEG

Hold Reunion on Saturday, Feb. 21st—The First Meeting. The following communication has been received from Mr. W. E. Dobbs secretary, the Belleville Club of Winnipeg and will doubtless be read with interest.

Winnipeg, Man., Feb. 6th, 1914. On January 30th The Belleville Club of Winnipeg held their first meeting of the year in the Board Room of the Industrial Bureau, Winnipeg, which they have secured as their permanent meeting place.

Although it was only in October, 1912, that William Johnson, superintendent of the bridge street Methodist Sunday School for thirty-eight years and recording at-steward of the church passed away, his great work is marked by a brass mural tablet on the wall at the north side of the main entrance.

FELL FROM TRAIN

Citizen of Kingston Injured on Way Home From Belleville Thursday Evening Last. The return trip to Kingston after the hockey game in Belleville was marked by many events and as a result the train did not pull into the city until twenty minutes after four and it should have been in shortly after one o'clock.

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, 87, Windsor, Ont., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions, and no money but write her today if your child troubles you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

ACTRESS INJURED

Miss Catherine Barrett, a member of the Martin Harvey company, sustained a fall at the station at Brockville last week after the performance, which necessitated her remaining there until Wednesday morning. She was removed to St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, where Dr. Jackson dressed a nasty cut on the left limb. Miss Barrett is a niece of Wilson Barrett, the celebrated actor.

MEMORIALS PRESENTED

CEREMONIES AT BRIDGE STREET METHODIST CHURCH SUNDAY MORNING.

Late Nathan Jones Introduced Instrumental Music into Churches—Mrs. Jones Was Great Teacher—Greatest of Superintendents Remembered—Work of Late J. C. Moynes.

Two interesting ceremonies fraught with memories of the past, distant and recent took place on Sunday in Bridge Street Methodist Church. The occasion was the presentation and acceptance of a stained window and a mural tablet in memory of three of the greatest workers the congregation has ever known.

In the morning Miss Marjorie Jones of this city on behalf of her aunt Mrs. Ella Bancroft, of Detroit, presented to the congregation a memorial window in memory of the latter's father, Nathan Jones, the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Jones. The window is that which is at the front of the church over the choir.

Mrs. Jones was the organizer and leader of a most successful young men's Bible Class. Under her teaching many joined the church and numbers entered the Methodist ministry. She was instrumental with the late Mrs. Dr. J. C. Moynes in organizing the C.P.R. Conservatory of Music, Northumberland and Addington. Office over Bell Telephone, opposite Post Office, Bridge St. Precept attention given.
