SCOTCH CATECHISM.
Pedagogue—"Who was Goliah?"
Boy—"The muckle giant wham David slew wi' a sling and a stone."
Pedagogue—"And who was David?"
Boy—"The son o' Jesse."
Pedagogue—"That's a braw man! And noo, who was Jesse?"
Boy—"The flower o' Dumblane."

COULDN'T TELL THE DIFFERENCE.
A loafer got hold of a green persimmon, which (before they are ripened by the frost) are said to be the most bitter and pucky fruit known. He took the persimmon outside the garden wall, and commenced upon it by seizing a generous mouthful of fruit, which proved to be in a state to frizzle his lips and tongue most provokingly.

"How do you like it?" inquired the owner of the garden, who had been watching him.
The saliva was oozing from the corners of the fellow's mouth, and he was only able to reply—
"How do I look, neighbor? Am I whistling or singing?"

GENEALOGICAL.
A person took the liberty to question M. Dumas rather closely concerning his genealogical tree.
"You are a quadroon M. Dumas?" he began.
"I am, sir," quietly replied M. Dumas, who had sense enough not to be ashamed of what he could not conceal.
"Your father?"
"Was a mulatto."
"And your grandfather?"
"A negro," hastily answered the dramatist, whose patience was waning.
"And may I inquire what your great grandfather was?"
"An ape, sir!" thundered Dumas, with a fierceness that made his impertinent interrogator shrink into the smallest possible compass. "An ape, sir; my pedigree commences where yours terminates!"

Insinuation Direct.—It is rumored—we cannot vouch for the truth of the report—that while a well-known sporting doctor in a neighboring village was under examination as a witness in a case of libel before the Presbytery of Arbroath, and when asked the effect which a given quantity of morphia would have upon an individual, if swallowed, replied—"It would have the same effect as swallowing four tumblers of toddy, which I suppose you [addressing the questioner, a member of the Presbytery] are quite well acquainted with."—Arbroath Guide.

Awful Pun.—A distinguished member of the bar is responsible for the following:—One of our Boston pilots who is somewhat inclined to corpulence, being on the stand a few days since, the learned council inquired who it was, and being informed that it was Mr. —, a pilot, replied that judging from appearances, he should suppose he was descended from the celebrated Panchous Pilot! That is the very "wast one" out.

Poetical.—A cobbler in Mobile, who also professes to teach music, has the following sign over the door:—
"Delightful task, to mend the tender boot,
And teach the young idea how to flute!"

Lucky.—A notorious toper used to mourn about not having a regular pair of eyes, one being black, the other light hazel. "It is lucky for you," replied his friend, "for if your eyes had been 'matches,' your nose would have set them on fire long ago."

Number of Insects.—The number at present described, or contained in collections without being described, may be taken at between 150,000 and 170,000. The rich Berlin collection does not contain less than 90,000 species. The insect Fauna of Great Britain, is estimated at 11,600 species.—Aspects of Nature.

"Cabbage," says the Edinburgh Review, "contains more muscle-sustaining nutriment than any other nutriment whatever." This probably, accounts for their being so many athletic fellows among the tailors.

Honeymoon.—It was the custom of the higher order of Germans to drink mead, a beverage made with honey, for thirty days after every wedding.—From this custom comes the expression "to spend the honeymoon."

"Honey vs Vinegar.—We have heard many women complain of their husband's neglect of home. A spoonful of honey will keep more bees in the hive than will ten of vinegar.

Something like Fanaticism.—On Palm Sunday, Dr. Hendren, 'Bishop of Clifton,' rode round the aisles of his 'cathedral,' mounted on a donkey, in imitation of our blessed Lord's entry into Jerusalem previous to his crucifixion!

The Census.—A Sensible Woman.—A thrifty, bustling dame, who manages a very thriving grocery concern—her husband slipping about doing nothing, although he thinks the business could not go on without him—received one of the census schedules to fill up. It was not thought worth while to give it to the gude-man, as he, poor easy soul, took no charge of anything in particular. The wife, seeing 'Head of the family,' said, 'That's me, nae doot. I wad like to ken what's the head of the family if it's no me?' So down goes Janet '—, head of the family.' The gude-man, of course, came next in rotation; so John '—, was put down; and after his name this very complimentary addition by the wife of his bosom—'Doits about, and does naething; leaves a' to me.' Well does Janet! such husbands deserve such treatment.

Tit for Tat.—A lawyer in the Ohio legislature introduced a bill in favor of instructing convicts in the state prison in the art of printing; whereupon the printers of Columbus presented a petition that the said convicts might be instructed in law.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

THE Subscriber intimates to his friends and customers, that as he has hitherto lost a great deal of time in hunting up his debtors,—many of whom do not pay, not from the want of means so much as from the want of a will,—he intends to alter the system; and he has therefore to inform all those whose accounts are overdue, that if settlements are not immediately effected, such accounts will very soon be put in suit. In the meantime,—as regards credit—except in the case of customers who have the will, as well as the means, to pay their debts in proper time—JACK has gone into his shell.
