Learn Dressmaking IN TWO WEEKS

Have you commenced your spring and summer sewing? Are you interested in Dressmaking, either professionally or for your own family sewing? Have you broken away from the old way of depending on patterns.

Please pardon so many questions, but each one means something to you.

We have a wonderfully complete systems in dressmaking—15 in all. These lessons will be of lasting benefit to you. They will throw new light on the subject, and instead of being tedious and tiresome you will find dressmaking one of the most interesting of all your diversions. It will no longer be a "duty," but a pleasure to make a dress, and your dresses will have a fit such as few women can accomplish.

We teach you how to cut, fit, and put together everything in the fashion books. Food is converted into nutrition through the stomach as strength of the stomach of what extent food eaten is digested and assimilated. People can die of starvation who have abundant food to eat, when the stomach and its associate organs of digestion and nutrition do not perform their duty. Thus the stomach is really the vital organ of the body. If the stomach is weak's tompath whole, is made up of its several members and organs, so the weakness of the body is weak because it is ill-nourished that the propose the body. Light and Tasty Dainties For Luncheons and Suppers.

The following dishes are selected with a view to meet the constant demand for something light and tasty and also smart and ornamental in appearance for supper luncheons and

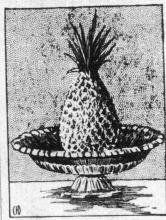

For this purpose little souffles of asparagus are delicious. Boil some asparagus and rub the green heads through a sieve. Mix them with two eggs well beaten, a little milk and a pinch of pepper and salt. Fill small well buttered souffle dishes with this mixture and bake. Garnish each souffle with four heads of asparagus, care being taken that these are not overcooked or they will be apt to break and spoil the effect. It is better to cook them separately and add afterward. The dish can be served hot or cold. Spinach could be treated in the same way, garnished with hard boiled egg and slices of tomato.

Another delicious dish and exceedingly pretty is pineapple macedoine. This of fruit flavored with liqueur, the whole masked with a meringue mixture dredged with powdered sugar and baked from fifteen to twenty minutes. The meringue mixture should be lightly patterned before baking with a sharp knife so as to represent as much as possible the rind of the pineapple The green head of the fruit lightly frosted with sugar makes a pretty finish, or, if preferred, angelica cut into the likeness of the crest can be sub-This dainty peach dessert is a charm

Set in this a little star of angelica, then fill with strawberry cream. When set turn out, and arrange the medal-lions at equal distances around the mound of cream.

Hunt Up Crochet Tidies. Have any of the housewives old fash-ioned crocheted tidles which they have concealed in the dark recesses of their closets? If so, now is the time to bring them out not for ornamental use in the home, but for dress trimming. Fash-ion has set the seal of her approval upon handmade lace, and there is nothing more modish than the pretty crocheted lace with which every woman cheted lace with which every woman was wont to occupy her spare time a few years ago. Women folk were especially fond of making tidies of the little round wheels of crocheted lace. Now, while these tidies were hideous as ornaments for chairs, they are reality lovely when taken apart and set in dainty waists as medallions. A tour of the shops will show many beautiful lingerie waists with yoke and other ful lingerie waists with yoke and other fancy effects formed of lace medallions. One clever girl who found an old fashioned tidy in the attic brought it to light of day and after washing and separating the wheels put half dozen on the front of her new lingerie blouse. The effect was charming, and the girl is now receiving congratula-tions on her waist.
