A GOOD MAN

William Hamill One of the Most Respected Residents of the County Is Called to the Great Beyond

The death occurred on Saturday evening of one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of this county in the person of Wm. Hamill, Murray street. Deceased was 83 years of age and has been ailing for some time. About a week ago he was taken seriously ill and he gradually sank until death resulted on Saturday.

Mr. Hamill was born in Ireland and came out to this country with his parents when he was eight years of age. The family stayed for some little time near Brockville, but later came to Kent and settled down on the old Hamill homestead on the township between Howard and Harwich. Deceased was a son in a family of four boys and three girls. Three of his brothers—John, Robert and David—are still living.

When he was a young man he purchased a farm near Charing Cross, where he lived until 15 years ago, when he retired from active farming life and purchased a home on Murray street, where he spent the remaining years of his life. Deceased was married 32 years ago to Miss Hannah Conn, and they celebrated their golden wedding two years ago. At that time both were in good health and even up till a few months ago Mr. Hamill seemed quite hale and hearty for a man of his years. Besides his widow a family of two sons and four daughters are left to mourn his death. They are Meredith, who lives on the Communication Road, two miles from Blenheim; William J., a farmer, of Charing Cross, who has recently been living with his parents; Mrs. E. E. Tait, of Bradford, Penn.; Mrs. White, of Charing Cross; Mrs. Tanner, of Sarnia; and Mrs. A. H. Goings, of Exeter.

There is no other family in the county who are better respected than the Hamills. The deceased gentleman was an honest and upright man in every respect and greatly honored by all who knew him. He was a consistent member of the Park Street Methodist church. About 50 years ago he joined the Orange Lodge, when the late Rufus Stephenson, of this city, and others, instituted a lodge at Blenheim. He subscribed for The Planet at that time and he has been a subscriber for this journal ever since.

The funeral will leave his late residence, Murray street, for Blenheim Evergreen Cemetery on Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. Rev. Mr. Rutledge will conduct the obsequies.

The sincerest sympathies of The Planet are extended to the bereaved family.

NEW ORGAINST

With yesterday's services John R. Smith entered upon his duties as organist and choir-master of the First Presbyterian church, his excellent work being much appreciated. In the morning he played "The Weary at Rest," an exquisite voluntary a fittingly commemorative of the demise of the late Harry Taylor, a former member of the choir, while Miss Lucy McKellar sang a splendid solo. In the evening the choir rendered an anthem, the solo parts being taken by Misses McGeorge and Peate.

More fun than ever at Marks Bros. to-night. Prices 10, 15 and 25 cents.
