LECTURE.—On Friday evening, 29th ult., Rev. W. B. Hinson, of Moneton, N. B., lectured in Assembly Hall before the Athenaeum Society, on "Infidelity." Impanelling the audience as a jury, and arraigning before a common bar infidelity and Christianity, the lecturer put to each a series of questions. The answers given by each were characteristic of their peculiarities. Christianity answered clearly, concisely and with certainity, while Infidelity made many contradictory statements and left much insomplete, unsatisfactory and misty. Notwithstanding the very bacl storm which prevailed during the evening, a large and appreciative audience greeted the lecturer on his appearance, and for their courage in braving the storm, they felt themselves amply repaid by the interesting and matricitive manner in which the speaket treated his ableate, and we hope the good work will go on.

Loss.—Mr Avery Bowser, of Grand Pre, lost a fine ox one day last week, be ing one of a pair he had recently purchased. It was noticed a few days before that something was wrong with the ox and it was thought to be lame. At night it appeared in the yeals condition, and was found in the morning dead in its stall. A post mortem examination was held, when it was decided that death was eaused by an enlargement of the heart.

Artistic —We had the pleasure on day last week, of examining some ornamental painting and frescoing which Mr W. P. Blenkborn, the young artist who has recently come among us, has just completed at Professor Coldwell's. The work is done in a most artistic manner and shows a large amount of talent on the part of the artist. Three rooms and the hall are frescoed and ornamented and we doubt if as fine work in this line can be found in the county. We hope that Mr Blenkhorn will find sufficient work in this neighborhood to induce him to remain in Wolfville and think that our people should do all in their power t make it worth his while to do so.
