and from Wolfville. It was decided to meet in Wolfville.

The last aession of the Convention opened as usual, Miss Bartlett leading the devotional exercises. The Committee on Courtesies then reported. A clause of this report was to to the effect that z letter of sympathy be sent to hirs Toffs, who was then in the Halifax formary, also that a letter of the same nature be sent to Mrs Dr. Back, who has recently been berefs of her husband. The Committee on Resolutions next presented their report, followed by the committee on "Plus of Work." The last report was aspined with slight changes. Special stress was laid upon the necessity of the local unions carrying out this plan et work in the coming year. The last meeting of the Convention then obsaed by singing four verses of the hymn, "God he with you till we meet again. The largest number of delegates present at any one session was thirty three and the number included the officers. I should like to add that the bible readings given by Madames Jost, Black, Quigley, and Miss Bartlett, were of more then orbinary spirituality, as well as an inspiration to all. Let us pray that all who were present at the Convention of '98 may return to their homes and 16 their respective unions more firmly resolved than ever that by the help of God they will increase their efforts in the coming year, for God and Home and Every Land.

Respectfully submitted,

S. ELLEN HEMMEON.
