

Gleaned by the Way.

Hoax—Her month is a perfect Cupid's bow. Hoax—Yes, it's rather an arrow one.

Passenger—I have paid my fare. Conductor—I don't recollect it. Passenger—And you won't recollect it, either.

To Purify the Blood. The blood can only be kept clear of poisons...

Is your husband voracious in his appetite, madam? I can't say as he is, doctor. He'll eat anything and everything as long as there's anything to eat.

In the autumn rheumatism is so general that all our readers so suffering will be glad to hear that a letter addressed to The Dr. Williams, Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., will be to their advantage. Write to-day.

He—Before we become engaged I must tell you that I had a cousin who was hanged. She—That's all right. I've got about 30 or 40 that ought to be.—Brooklyn Eagle.

When Sick. Is a disease of the blood, not unlike anemia. Weakness, shortness of breath, poor appetite, indigestion and irritability, are the symptoms.

There is a son of Erin in this town who is quite a character. He has a number of children, and was asked one day how long he had been married.

Well, he said, there's Eugene is forty, and Norah thirty-five, that makes seventy-five, and Lizzie is thirty-two, and how many do that make?—Quebec Telegraph.

Piles. To prove to you that Dr. Chase's Ointment is a certain and absolute cure for each and every form of itching, bleeding and protruding piles...

Dr. Chase's Ointment. Sir Luke Filides recalls an amusing story of an inquisitive visitor to a picture gallery which is well worth repeating.

CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Patient—The examination seems to have delighted you, doctor. I judge from your happy countenance that you can't say my life.

Dr. Sawbones—I cannot promise you that, but we must perform a little more surgery. During a lecture at one of the leading colleges on the subject of Ventilation and Architecture, the temperature of the room rose to a very high pitch.

John and Pat were two friendly workmen, who were constantly lifting, each one trying to outwit the other.

Are you good at measurement? asked John. I am that, said Pat, quickly. Then, could you tell me how many shirts I could get out of a yard? asked John.

Sure, said Pat, that depends on whose yard you got into.

A Well-Known Man. MERRILL LIVERY CO., LIMITED. DEAR SIR—I am requesting your MR. ARD'S LIVERY, the reputation and service, as I have used it for both with excellent results.

A Smart Englishman.

A tall, practical Englishman went over to the States the other day from London. He took lodgings at an inn in a small village, which shall be nameless.

We call our servants, sir, 'helps.' They are not oppressed, they are not Russian serfs.

In an instant every person equal to the task rushed into his room with a pair of water.

I am much obliged to you, I am sure, he said, but I don't want so much water, you know. I only want enough to shave with.

Shave with? said the landlord. 'Help! Water!' We thought the house was afire.

Thin as a Rail, are You? Every day spending as much energy as you make—if the balance goes a little further, well, you get thinner.

They have an excellent fashion in England of reminding a government that it is not keeping its promises.

They have an excellent fashion in England of reminding a government that it is not keeping its promises. The Catholics supported the Liberal party at the last general election, and did a good share to roll up its tremendous majority.

Thin Blood Made Strong. Tiredness and Weakness Overcome. A JOYOUS TIP.

I admit because I neglected early treatment I am entirely to blame for the condition of weakness that for nearly two years made my life a real misery.

A Ribbon Season.

The charming fancy of freshening a hat by substituting pretty bright ribbons in place of faded trimmings is being indulged in by no end of women these days.

Prevent Taking Cold. Often you come home, cold and shivering—feet are wet, throat is raw, chest a little sore.

Porous Plaster on your chest, rub your throat with Nervilleine, and take a stiff dose of Nervilleine in hot water.

VEGETABLE COMPOUND. To conquer all female diseases. Mrs. Frank Emaley, Lindsay, Ontario, writes to Mrs. Pinkham.

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN. For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills.

Twitching of the Nerves

Become almost unbearable until Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food brought about a cure.

Twitching of the fingers, restlessness, sleeplessness, inability to control the nerves.

What a story of exhausted nerves is told by these symptoms. Nervous prostration and paralysis are not far away unless restorative treatment is used.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food. The writer of this letter was fortunate enough to learn about Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food and tells his experience for the benefit of other sufferers from diseases of the nerves.
