ELIMINATION OF THE MIDDLEMAN

An Endeavor Being Made to Obtain More Money for the Farmer for Grain Crop

[Associated Press by Leased Wire.] Chicago, Nov. 5.—Five million United States farmers will be asked for their opinions on how to eliminate the middleman, it was announced today by the committee of seventeen of the Farmers Marketing Bureau, which is in session here to devise a plan to obtain more money for the farmer for his grain crops.

"We are going to see the views in considering a new marketing plan," G. F. Gustafson, of Lincoln, Nebraska, chairman of the committee, said. "We shall offer our ideas to the many farmers' co-operative organizations and then ask that they send delegates to a final convention about January 1, when we will make our plans operative."

He said the committee was opposed to the farmers who strike to influence the grain market.

YOUNG MOTHER SHOT BY DETECTIVE

The Sleuth Was Aiming at Boy Eluding Arrest for Theft of Cigarettes

[Canadian Press by Leased Wire.] New York, Nov. 5.—Miss Doloresa Monti, twenty six, mother of a five weeks old baby, was shot yesterday by detective James Kenny, who fired at a fleeing thief, alleged to have stolen some cigarettes from the back of an automobile truck. She died later in a hospital.

When the woman dropped to the sidewalk, the detective stopped long enough to place her on the steps of a house and continued his pursuit. He arrested the boy, Joseph Peniber, aged 18, shortly afterwards, to whom Kenny made a report, hold the detective blameless.

A straightforward address was given by H. A. Mackenzie, the Government candidate, who is running for re-election every time he speaks, and putting forward with convincing force his claim to election as the number one.

H. H. Stevens, M. P., spared neither Mackenzie King nor Colonel Edgett in his remarks, and although he was subject to a little heckling regarding the railway rates and Oriental labor, quickly convinced his hearers that his arguments were sound, and that the Government's record of performance was one that met with the approval of all the sane-thinking people of the country.

The Prime Minister dealt with the sugar question, and the railway freight rates, pointing out that although the railway rates had increased a percentage of 195 per cent., 55 per cent. everything else had in the Railway Commissioners had been asked to reconsider their decision on the question of equalization of eastern and western rates, and not to take into consideration the requirements of the national system as at present constituted, which was not a business railway proposition, large sections of it having been built twenty-five years before its time for colonization purposes.

Word to the Candidate.

The Premier then pointed out to Colonel Edgett that as he was running against the Government nominee he was seeking to assist in having the Government thrown out of office and put in a free trade Government, although he was himself in favor of a tariff. He favored developing the resources of the Dominion, which was the Government programme, and that was directly opposed to the party that had endorsed him. They had simply wanted to make Canada a supply depot for the freely imported goods from the United States. As to extending land settlement to all, enough money could not be collected to extend it to one-tenth of the people, and apart from that land settlement was a provincial matter, except in so far as the soldiers were concerned.

A member of the audience remarked during the discussion of the tariff that Mr. Mackenzie King had not declared for free fruit, and when the Premier showed that his platform declared for free food, the interrupter remarked: "I only have his word for it," and Mr. Meighen retorted, amidst laughter and applause, "I am sorry you have not something better."

Colonel Edgett wanted to tax the profits of those protected. Did he want to tax the fruit farmers? The Government had been taxing the manufacturers for five years past, higher than any other country in the world.

Hon. J. A. Calder, who has been suffering from a bad cold since leaving Vancouver, also spoke briefly.

Prime Minister Meighen Talks To Fruit Growers of B. C.

The other matters in Colonel Edgett's programme dealing with educational and land settlement as applied to everybody, and preventing Orientals from holding land, were purely provincial Government matters, and Mr. Meighen told the gallant colonel that he was in the wrong field and ought to be contesting a seat in the coming provincial election if he was really interested in the subjects that formed the major portion of his platform. And after the meeting was all over Colonel Edgett was heard to remark that it certainly was an education to hear the Prime Minister speak.

POPE BENEDICT A PATRON OF ART

Two Artists Have Studios and Work on the Grounds of the Vatican

[Associated Press by Leased Wire.] Rome, Nov. 5.—Although the Popes of today cannot afford to spend enormous sums on artists, sculptors and decorators as did the pontiffs of the renaissance, Benedict XV, is a patron of the arts, and has allowed two artists to have studios and work on the grounds of the Vatican. They are Quadroni, the sculptor, who at the Pope's expense is modelling a more than life-size statue of the Cardinal Hippolytus for his monument in the Church of Santa Cecilia and the artist Antonelli, who is painting a huge picture of the promulgation of the code of canon law.

The picture of Benedict XV, seated on a throne, receiving from his co-worker, Cardinal Gasparri, the volumes containing the newly codified canon law, represents 52 figures, all portraits of the ecclesiastic and lay court of the pontiff. There are to be seen 10 cardinals, the Pope's Major-domo, Monsignor Tacchi, his Master of the Chamber, Monsignor de Samperi, the Grand Marschal, who have charge of great Vatican ceremonies and wear the picturesque renaissance dress of ruff and doublet; the commanders of the "pontifical guard," the Swiss Guard, and many others, so the picture will have considerable historic interest in the future.

Around the enormous frame there are portraits of past popes who have specially interested themselves in the codification of the canon law. Pius X., Boniface VIII., Innocent III., Alexander II., Gregory IX., and Benedict XIV.

The block of Carrara marble for Quadroni's statue of Cardinal Rampolla weighs 19 tons, and the statue will be over six feet and nine inches high, with an angle in high relief behind it. The monument will eventually be placed in the Basilica of Santa Cecilia in Trastevere, which was Cardinal Rampolla's titular church, the lower part of which he restored generously in 1901.

Benedict XV, frequently visits the studios of both these artists, advising with them as to the work which they are carrying out for him.

SCHOONER LEAKING

St. John, Nov. 5.—The four masted schooner Friendship, from Hillsboro to New York, with a cargo of plaster, ran put into St. John leaking badly. It has not been determined whether it will be possible to install additional pumps to enable the vessel to proceed, or whether it will be necessary to unload the craft and lay her up for repairs.

The Best Cough Syrup is Home-made.

Here's an easy way to save $1 and get the best cough remedy you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? When you do, you will understand why thousands of families, the world over, feel that they could hardly keep home without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will quickly earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a 16-oz. bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the bottle. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you 16 ounces of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for $2.00.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tickling cough, lifts the phlegm, heals the membrane, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

NEGRO WOMEN REFUSED BALLOT

[Associated Press by Leased Wire.] Savannah, Ga., Nov. 2.—Negro women were refused ballots at the voting places in Savannah today. Many negro women have registered here since the suffrage amendment became effective, but the election judges ruled that they were not entitled to vote because of a state law which requires registration six months before an election.

No white women presented themselves at the polls.

RED CROSS WORK IN NEW BRUNSWICK

[Special despatch to The Daily Gleaner.]

St. John, N. B., Nov. 5.—At a special meeting of the local Red Cross Society this morning, Mrs. Frank S. White was unanimously elected president of the local branch of the society. In place of Mrs. John A. MacAvity, resigned. Mrs. White is one of the most prominent Red Cross workers, and during the war was associated with many societies and was an ardent worker in all branches of war work. A committee consisting of Miss Alice Wilker, Secretary of the Local Branch as convenor, Mrs. H. Lawrence and Miss Stetson, was appointed, with power to add to their number, to act with the Provincial Red Cross regarding the war relief fund.

TWO DEAD FROM WOOD ALCOHOL

[Associated Press by Leased Wire.] Baltimore, Md., Nov. 5.—Two men are dead at Edgewood Arsenal from drinking what is believed to have been wood alcohol in the second outbreak of wood alcohol poisoning at the Arsenal within two months.

The first outbreak occurred in September, when nine men died from this cause. Perseverance works wonders, but it cannot convert bad eggs into chickens. You can't get even with your physician by returning his call.
