

Whitcomb's Remedy
ASTHMA,
Rose Cold and Hay Fever.

The late Jonas Whitcomb of Boston, visited Europe a few years since for the benefit of his health, which was impaired by frequent attacks of Spasmodic Asthma.

TESTIMONIALS.
St. Louis, Nov. 10, 1871.
Messrs. Burnett & Co.,
The relief the Jonas Whitcomb's Asthma Remedy afforded me was perfect; I have not had a bad night since taking it, and I have in no case found any relief until your Remedy came to hand.

WEDDED AND WIDOWED.

A Young Man Leaves His Bride on the Night of their Marriage.

ANTRIM, Jan. 6.-A most remarkable affair has just come to light, and is creating very considerable talk among the gossips of the district. On New Year's Day, Adam Sims, a respectable young man of Stranorlar, was married to Miss O'Reilly.

The ceremony was quietly conducted, and on all sides the young couple were supposed to be well matched, and the congratulations of their friends were hearty and sincere.

During the night of the marriage day, in the most inexplicable manner, the young man rose from his bridal bed and left the house, not to return.

Most diligent search and enquiry have been made in all directions, but no trace of the errand bridegroom has been discovered, and his friends are apprehensive that he has either committed suicide, or is in some distant part of the world.

It is believed that the young man is still in the neighbourhood, but without revealing his name, he has only been seen three months out of the latter place, and has spent ten years of his life in the Penitentiary, where he was confined for three months on account of his conduct.
