Look. Read. Realize!

We cater to the men's trade, and no other. If you were sick you wouldn't call to see a Tailor, or a Blacksmith, about the condition of your health. Of course not; you would call to see a Doctor.

If you wanted a Suit or an Overcoat you would go to see a Doctor, or a Shoemaker? Not at all. You would go to see a First Class Tailor.

WELL, there's where we shine!!!

We study the business. We know what suits a young man we know what suits a middle-aged man, and we know what suits the old gentleman—both in goods and in style. It does not make any difference whether you want your clothes Ready-to-Wear, or Made-to-Order. We are equally in a position to suit you. We do not let a suit or overcoat leave our establishment until it suits and fits the man who is buying. Our prices are always right when you take the quality into consideration.

Do not forget that we are sole agents for the famous W. H. Leishman & Co., Wholesale Custom Tailors. We have an elegant stock of Overcoats to show you at the present time.

Overcoats, Made-to-Order-from....$30.00 to $48.00

Overcoats, Ready-to-Wear.....$15.00 to $36.00

Success Is a Habit

Our habits make us. We are creatures of habit. Whether we are a success or a failure is a question of how we do things without thinking. To Save is the only way to success

Gloves

We have just the kind of Gloves you need, lined and unlined. Also Wool Gloves for this time of year. Suedes and Tans—both, combination. Price.....$1.00 to $4.00

A Mother's Recompense

That is the solemn hour when the mother of a newly ordained missionary prepares to look the last on her son, and when the young apostle makes ready to say goodbye to his mother. Shall they ever meet again on earth? Probably not. The farewell then is forever.

In Quebec, Canada, there was recently ordained a White Father. Rev. Edward Labrecque, whose fields will be in the far depths of Africa. At his first Mass, which he was permitted to say in the little town of his birth, he addressed from the Altar these words of tribute to her who had given him as an offering to the great cause of the apostolate:

"Dear mother, it is to you I wish to speak, in presence of these priests whom I venerate, these relatives whom I love. This occasion is a precious one to me indeed when I offer to you before them all my thanks for all that you have done for me."

"He who thanks you this day is still your Edward, always your Edward, but your Edward elevated by a signal grace of the good God above the seraphim and cherubim who minister to Him in His Glory."

"In the name of this same God I thank you, beloved mother, for the sacrifices without number that you have made for me; for the ceaseless prayers by day and in the watches of the night that you have offered for my vocation; for your countless communions made that I might become a holy priest of God. I thank you for your wise counsels, for the saintly example of your life, the guides of my soul and the support of my weak virtue."

"I thank you finally for the love with which you have nourished me, a love which you have carried to the total forgetfulness of self—an incomparable love, drawn from the Heart of Jesus to which you unite your own every morning in the Sacrament of the Altar."

"No words of mine can thank you sufficiently today; I leave it to Heaven itself. Look around at this assemblage of priests and prelates, enclosing us and carrying with them celestial blessings—look at me: I am a priest! Behold your recompense. God has heard your prayers and given to you your heart's desire!"

"You will share in my vocation, and with me be the savior of the souls to whom I consecrate the remainder of my life."

Robert Bruce's Heart Found in Melrose Abbey

An old Catholic story of high romance has flashed its splendor across these dreary days of war indemnities and reparations. The Heart of the Bruce has been discovered in fair Melrose—or, rather, a heart has been found which is believed to be that of Robert the Bruce, King of Scotland.

The story of Bruce's Heart is one of the most stirring of mediaeval romances. Robert Bruce lay dying at Cardross, and his last moments were saddened by the thought that he had failed to fulfil his vow of making a pilgrimage to the Holy Sepulchre. So, as he lay dying, King Robert called to his side the Lord James Douglas, and commanded that after his death his body should be laid in the Abbey of Dunfermline, but that his heart should be

DO YOUR BOWELS

Move Regularly, or Do They BECOME CONSTIPATED?

If the truth were only known it would be found that half the ills of life are caused by constipation, for when the bowels cease to work properly all the organs of the body become deranged. A free motion of the bowels, every day, should be the rule of everyone who aspires to perfect health.

Keep your bowels regular by the use of Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills, and you will have no constipation, no bilious or sick headaches, or any other troubles arising from a wrong action of the liver or bowels.

Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills are 25c. a trial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

ness of Holy Saturday, it is emblematic of the Resurrection from the darkness of the tomb. The forty days during which we see it in the sacristy represent the forty days during which Christ remained on earth after that glorious event, The Feast of the Ascension, commemorates His departure from earth to the Right Hand of His Eternal Father, and the Paschal Candle is then removed from the sanctuary.

The wonderfully beautiful ceremony with which the Candle is blessed on Holy Saturday morning forms the outstanding feature of that deeply emblematic day. First of all a spark is struck from a flint, and the 'New Fire' is blessed. The flint may represent Christ the Cornerstone (Ephesians 2: 20), from whom we have received the fire of God's brightness. Next, the five grains of incense are blessed; their candles are successively lighted, with the invocation, 'Lumen Christi' (Light of Christ); the lesson sings the exquisite Exultet, with its peculiar preface, during which he pauses to insert in the candle the five grains of incense and to light it.

The Paschal Candle

A most picturesque addition to the furnishing of the sanctuary the Paschal Candle stands in its massive candlestick on the Gospel side from Holy Saturday until Ascension Thursday, writes Mgr. Henry for the N.C.W.C. During this Easter tide it is lighted at Solemn Mass and Vespers on Sundays, but on Ascension Day, after the Gospel, it is finally extinguished and is removed from the sanctuary.

What does this strange and temporary visitor suggest to our minds? Clearly, the purpose is not the 'utilitarian one of illumination. It is purely emblematic, and its symbolism is both rich and highly interesting. It represents Christ, the Light of the World: "I am the light of the world. He that followeth Me walketh not in darkness." (John 8: 12). We recall that upon these words of Divine leadership and human vocation Thomas a Kempis based his wonderful book on the Imitation of Christ.

The wax of which it is composed, a mysterious virginal production of the cleanly bees, represents the virginal flesh of Christ, formed in the womb of His Immaculate Mother. The wick symbolizes His human soul the flame His Divine Nature absorbing both soul and body. We notice in the body of the candle the five grains of incense arranged in the form of a cross, and we think both of the aromatical spices with which His Sacred Body was prepared for the tomb, and of the Five Wounds in Hands and Feet and Side.

Kidneys Troubled Her.

BACK ACHE SO BAD COULD NOT SLEEP.

The epidemic of "Flu" has a great deal to be responsible for. In nearly every case it has left some bad after effects, and in a great many cases it is the kidneys that have suffered.

When the kidneys have been left in a weakened state, very often some serious kidney trouble will follow if not attended to. Doan's Kidney Pills will prove to be just the remedy you require to strengthen them.

Miss Florence Barnshaw, Appleton, Ont., writes:—Last winter, after I had the "Flu" I was troubled with my kidneys. My back ached so I could not sleep, and my ankles were so swollen I could not walk. A neighbor told me about Doan's Kidney Pills. I got two boxes, and before I had the first one taken I felt a change. I cannot recommend your medicine enough.
