Post Office
Matters.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir—Please allow me space in your paper to make a few remarks concerning a letter which I saw in your paper of March 24th. One would think after reading that letter, if he were not sure, that the statements are exaggerated; that we, as a people, were treated badly by the postmistress. I claim, sir, that the mail has been given out after six o'clock on Saturday and before eight on Monday morning. When the boat comes during office hours, I don't think anyone need wait half an hour for their mail, for it is opened as soon as possible after arrival. The postmistress cannot keep the steamer waiting for replies, but a law should be made for the boat to stay here at least an hour.

I hope the writer didn't stretch his imagination concerning that sick friend. We have a telegraph office here and if a friend of mine was seriously ill I would expect to get a message to that effect, while the office is open on Sunday or at any other time.
If we got daily mails I contend that some would want to get or post mail on Sunday. In my opinion if such as the one who wrote the letter I refer to, and signed his name "Birchy Hill," were to consider that Sunday work ought to be stopped altogether, he would see that it would be just as ungodly and unlawful to commit little sins (white ones) as do worse things.

Are the postal officials sworn in to work on Sunday or at whatever hour a few people would suggest? No, they have their hours and can, if they wish, keep them. I wonder in what way did our friend think of anyone as a public servant? Servants are not animals to be ill-treated and abused. It is right that postage stamps should be kept on hand, sufficient to supply the demands of the people. When reading the letter of our friend, this matter of postage stamps was the only thing which I thought was of importance in the whole epistle. As for the operator being given charge of both departments, I for one (and there are others who will agree with me) would not wish such to happen. I have my reasons.

The registration department of our post offices is a complete failure as it now stands. Why, Mr. Editor, since I came here, on September last, no less than four letters have been robbed of parts of their contents, and no less than $22.00 are now missing.
This robbery does not concern the whole of our Island but somewhere between here and St. John's. We need, sir, one or two Mr. Cooker's to point out the wrongs of our public officials to the voters. I was in the city when the House opened and attended a few sessions, but would have been delighted to have been able to attend all. Trusting that everything will be satisfactorily dealt with, I remain,

Yours truly,

Not "Birchy Hill, but

Minard's Liniment Co.

Gentlemen—I had my leg badly hurt the pain was very severe and a large swelling came above the knee.

I expected it would be serious—I rubbed it with MINARD'S LINIMENT, which stopped the pain and reduced the swelling very quickly.

I cannot speak too highly of MIN-ARD'S LINIMENT.

Old Maids.

All girls should marry when they are a n. There's ought more useful than a man.

A husband has some faults, no doubt, and yet

he's good to have about; and she who doesn't get a mate will wish

she had one, soon or late. That girl is off her base, I fear, who plans to have a high career, who sidesteps vows and wedding rings to follow after abstract things.
I know so many ancient maids who in professions, arts or trades have tried to cut a manlike swath,
