EARLY MESSAGES

Between the Oise and the Aisne the rmans were prevented from making any progress, says to-day's official statement. The battle continued with the greatest violence between the Aisne and the Ourcq the Germans capturing Pernan. Further south the French lost a little ground. The Germans have made a further advance in the Ourcq Valley, capturing the town of Silly Lapoterie. On the Marne

ADVANTAGE WITH ALLIES.

June 4. (Via Reuter's Ottawa Agencv.)-The latest reports of vesterday's fighting confirm that the enemy was held. The fighting was bitter along the whole front from the Oise to the Marne. The balance of the advantage rested with the Allies and such progress as the Germans made cost them an exaggerated price in casualties Extraordinarily bitter fighting is taking place in the Ourcq Valley for the possession of the road on the southern edge of Villers Cotterets forest in the direction of La Ferte Milion where a French cavalry division fighting on foot are engaged in obstinate conflict with crack army divisions, including the firts division of Prussian Guards, and making the enemy pay dearly for every foot of ground gained. The record of these nounted divisions since the beginning of the German offensive has been extraordinary. The Rolling incident illustrates the dash of dismoun cavalry. On May 31 a battle of foo
