THE EVENING TELEGRAM, ST. JOHN'S, NEWFOUNDLAND, APRIL 16, 1921-

Police Court Seen From the Gallery threshold of the President of the F.P.U. He has, since his return from Europe, been filling the columns of the Advocate not been desirous of commenting up-with a diary of notes on his trip. (As a diarist the Wordy Presilent has Pepvs on toast). In his voluminous comments he refers to "dry goods men, lawvers and politicians, who are rying to teach practical men their business." Quite so. We agree with Mr. Coaker, and therefore ask him why he ap- ing of eternal hope, yesterday, that pointed Trade Commissioners the member for Carbonear who adorns of "dry goods men," politicians appointees in this way. He is responsible for the absurd and ridiculous appointments of "dry goods men, lawyers, politicians, freds which may be laid at the and others to go to Europe and America "trying to teach prac-Evening Telegram America "trying to teach prac-tical men their business." Mr. Coaker's very own expression. It is highly offensive of Mr. W. J. HERDER, - - - Proprietor Coaker to be insulting his own

TN TREEDOMPS

CAUSE."

C. T. JAMES. - - - - Editor Saturday, April 16, 1921.

Business

dollars per year as imaginary- had elected them, and neither Messrs. Inconsistency. in reality-Trade Commission-On Thursday afternoon, in ers to sell Newfoundland fish in they were, the pawns of Mr. Coaker. Europe and the Americas. Men the House of Assembly, when The Gallery could not but admire who are not earning a tithe of moving the adoption of the the money being paid them as the Spartan-like fortitude with which amendment to the Address in the Minister of Education-the Hon. salaries; men who are as ignor-Reply to the Speech from the Arthur Barnes-took the nauseous ant of fish sales as a crowd of medicine administered to him by the Throne, delivered at the open-Fiji Islanders, who at least member for Port de Grave, but then ing of the local Parliament, little more than two weeks ago. whether Mr. Coaker's Trade one and only. Sir Michael Cashin, Leader of Commissioners know enough to the Opposition, in dealing with bait a hook is questionable. the power the Fishery Regula-They sure are qualified to judge tions placed in the hands of the of cure and requirements, hav-Minister of Marine and Fisheries, is reported, according to the ough grounding in all the eleofficial debates to have said, ing of which they now claim to arranging of the different items. The Price $1.40 a pkg. "that he could have sold a cargo of fish in Montreal last spring, be such cultured exponents. Mr. but he declined to tell the Minister of Marine and Fisheries all the details of his business. Mr. F. H. Hue was sent to Canada is to be known about fish from as a Trade Commissioner at the

the water to the market. That proper balance, harmony and expresmay be. According to his own sion so as to convey just the shade of statement he is a superman, meaning required. In these days too but apart from his profound many singers and choirs make a pracknowledge and wisdom, it will ties of singing double forte until all hopes of a soft passage disappears. nine dollars per quintal. He was take a longer period than he Outside of the excellect effect of an names ere his "dry goods men, occasional change from a strong lusty "Try for nine cents"-practical- lawyers, politicians and school- tone to a subdued and quieter passage, ly ten dollars per quintal_"If masters" become so expert in there is another matter to be considyou can get nine cents the the lore of fish buying and sell- ered; that of suiting the sound to the rived at 2.30 p.m. to-day. F.P.U. will fill the order." This ing, as is their chief, and right sentent expressed by the words. The country knows and re

A Taste For Music-A boy of 12 The Gallery for the past couple of days-since Wednesday anyway-has previously remanded on a charge of entering two stores on New Gower on the proceedings of the House of Street, appeared before Judge Morris this morning and was further charged with the larceny of several articles

The fear that the Speaker would from various stores, most of which arput his threat into execution and ticles were exhibited in Court and gave it the appearance of a country red us from attempting to ascend the store. Amongst other things this vonthful Raffles had taken a gramo phone from Messrs. Avre and Sons and he had also "lifted" 88 records Moreover, he entered the office of Mr. Kelly and walked off with a type writer, recoved a magic lantern fro -but does not honor-the chair of a delivery cart, stole another from the first commoner, had received the shop of N. W. Chown and took instructions not to interfere with the numerous other goods from various applause of the Gallery, on which he places. Mr. W. J. Higgins, K.C., asked frowned during the demonstrations for leniency on account of the boy's tender years but His Honour coul ble was speaking, did not attempt to not impose a fine of less than $50 or in default, three months imprison ment. Mr. Higgins offered to be res ponsible for the payment of the fine Districts on the Government side, i and was loudly cheered by the audience for his kindly act.

Accused Remanded.-A man at rested in connection with the larceny of cloth to the value of $2,500 from the Furness Withy Company's premise was remanded for eight days. Mr. W Foote, Cheeseman, Warren or Small J. Higgins, K.C., in the meantime, asked that bail be allowed. The Judge fixed bail on the man's own recogniz ances of $5000 and two bondsmen fo $2500 each.

Driving on Side Walk-Two truckmen were charged with driving on the side walk. They were each fined $1 and costa

Concentrated Sourdal is recommend ed for deafness, especially catarrhal

SATURDAY, April 16.

know enough to catch it, but the Gellery knows that Arthur is our McMurdo's Store News

"Clear the House," somewhat deter-steps which lead to avenues, following Wednesday's spectacular display

But it was noted, with the spring of the audience, while Sir John Cros-

The members representing Western looked miserable when Sit John Crosble asked them the question direct as to whether the Fishery Regulations had any answer. They looked, as check the expression.

et al" who are costing this Col- had not interfered with the prosperity ony hundreds of thousands of of the sections of the Colony which

The programme for the concert a deafness, and is said to give remark the College Hall on St. George's Night able results in such cases. From the ing each and all of them a thor- has now been completed and will ap- reports we hear of Sourdal, the claim pear in the papers on Monday. Very appears to be sustained, and we would ments of the profession or call- good tasts has been observed in the suggest a trial by the hard of hearing selections range from Classical pieces | For removing superfluous hair, Naet down to Plantation Lullabyles. The has a reputation which nothing of the Coaker argues that five years' whole ensemble having the elements kind has. It is distinctly less unpleasexperience is sufficient to qualify of a compact music drama. Some that ent to use than the foul smelling com him to learn and know all there are tragic, some tender, some pathe- pounds usually offered as depilations tic and some humorous. Great pains while its action is certain, and quite have been taken in practices to obtain harmless to the skin. Two sizes 75c.

and $1.50. Train Notes.

The express with the Kyle's mail and passengers is due at 8 p.m. A local express is due here early to morrow morning. The local train from Carbonear The Southern Shore train arrived

The weather along

GOVERNMENT.

fishermen there are holding a public Conditions in this city to-day and meeting on Monday night to consider in fact all over the Island, are any where the outfit for the codfishery is thing but bright and along Water coming from. Merchants are refusing to issue any supplies while the Fishare idle, the sole topic of conversation ery Regulations are on the Statute is the lack of employment. Feeling is Book, and it is the intention of the intense and the men realize that they are up against hard times. Last

A country's

Buy Hou

and s

These

ion. and

You

Loc

N.B.—First-class carving able lettering, combined class stock, give us the Give us your order and get there is at reasonable prices LOCAL CEMETERY WORK P Bookseller & Stationer.

well the price could not be obtained, and grets it.

consequently the sale of ten thousand quintals of fish at nine dollars per quintal, amounting to the handsome sum of Ninety Thousand Dollars, was lost. The expense of the Colony. He had wired from Montreal that he could sell ten thousand quintals of Labrador fish there at eight cents per pound-practically instructed by wire as follows:

A number of workmen held a prepoint Sir Michael made was that liminary meeting in the L.S.P.U. Hall in effect the Department of last night for the purpose of organiz-Marine and Fisheries had been ing a public meeting to be held at $ advised that a quantity of fish o'clock to-night. The object of calling could be disposed of to Canadian this public meeting is to consider what steps should be taken to alter buyers, but that the information a condition of affairs which is becomthus received had been held ing unbearable to a great number of work-people. As one of the speakers ties. Lose no time in securing seats as back from the trade by some responsible person, and an alterexpressed it we have been long singnative bid made on behalf of ing "There is a Silver Lining through the Fishermen's Protective Un- the Dark Clouds," but no man to-day can see that bright spot in the clouds. ion for one dollar per quintal more than Montreal buyers were city with no prospects of work, and offering, with the object of turn- what is more unfortunate, the number that organization the full sum time for considering what steps to the principal speakers, has compelled being spared to make the affair a sucing into the trade channels of was increasing as the days go by. The or hesitation, and the facts as held, all agreed that the time for acrelated by him gave incontromeasure of business inconsist- were appointed to arrange for toency on the part of some one to nights meeting after which adjournwhom information had come ment was taken.

through official channels, and who deliberately withheld from Brotherhood Movement. Ished elsewhere will show the sub-

Viking Has 18,000.

other firms in the fish business By reference to an advertisement the knowledge that such a sale could be consummated. As that the Rev. I. W. Williamson will will take place, and the arrangement clear a case of double crossing address a mass meeting of men in are in every respect so promising as could be recorded.

  No wonder that amazement ment. This meeting has been looked was expressed by all auditors forward to with a great deal of inter when this magnified duplicity est, and no doubt a large number of was exposed by Sir Michael, and men will be present to hear the rev. gentleman's address. no wonder that the audience applauded and cheered vociferously as the statement was repeated, and the action vigorously and soundly condemned by A message was received by Messra the Leader of the Opposition. Bowring Bros. yesterday afterno forming them of the arrival of the The half, obviously, in connecs.s. Viking at Channel, all well. A and the domination of the Min- private message from Capt. Bartlett stated that the Viking had 18,000 ister of Marine and Fisheries rime young harps. has not yet been told, but the complete tale has been promis-Boots for Boys and Girls 25 ed. Just another example of PER CENT. OFF at SMALL- MINARD'S LINIMENT FOR DIS inconsistency out of the hun- WOOD'S Big Shoe Sale.

octette have practiced hard and are able to sing the different pieces with heautiful effect. The ladies taking part n the concert are well known to all Laboring Men Meet. oncert goers. Mrs. D. Murphy will be heard in a violin concerto with Mr. AND DISCUSS CONDITIONS. Gordon Christian at the piano and

Mrs. H. Outerbridge will recite in her S.S. Portia passed Cape Race at 7.15 own inimitable style. At the Hall pro a.m. and arrived here at 2 p.m. to-day grammes will be on sale, containing GOVT. RAILWAY COMMISSION. all the words of the different songs Home left Harbor Buffett at 7.20 p and choruses. They are nicely printed n. yesterday, outward. and will prove very useful souvenirs. The concert is held under the anspices

Kyle no report arriving at North of the Llewellyn Club and the pro- Sydney. Meigle left St. Jacques at 7.20 p.m. ceeds will be devoted to City Chariresterday, going to Port aux Basques they are going quickly. Plan of Hall can be seen, and tickets are on sale N. C. O.'s "At Home." at Mr. F. V. Chesman's, Water Street

The N.C.O's of the C.L.B. Cadets in-Hundreds of people were idle in the Postponement of Service tend holding an "At Home" in the C. C.C. Hall on April 22nd, the day beper will be provided. In this last dirto-morrow as announced. The Committee is anxious that the ection the Ladies' Auxiliary are rapid-change, and the order of service pub- be very largely attended, particularly in detail; he has really what is rare everybody can take a rest. stitution arranged: It is expected that next Sunday, the Shipping Notes.

Trepassey Thursday evening.

in another column, it will be seen 24th inst., the Missionary Anniversary the auditorium of Gower St. Church that it was deemed highly advisable Wind E.N.E., light, weather foggy; s.s. Portia passed in at 7.15 and an

(2) weeks later and note the in-rease .- jan 27.tf

moved. The most casual observe morning was calm and fine. The glass preliminary meeting has night's must see that discontent is manifest hope that something would registered from 16 to 33 degrees. aroused ing itself all over the country, and un be done to bring to the notice of the less something is done promptly authorities the deplorable conditions Coastal Boats.

(By A. A. PARSONS in the Newfound land Quarterly.)

"Perhaps the finest and most con- | or a document which he regarded as picuous figure in political life, was vitally important no pains were too the Rt. Hon. Sir Robert Bond. In his grat; he would go over the whole public capacity he was the soul of thing, line by line and word by word, honour, and no man stood on a high- submit and resubmit it to criticism, The unexpected absence of one of fore the whole holiday. No efforts are er social pedestal. Indeed, few poli- and part with it only when he felt asthere interested party being made any the wiser. Sir Michael told this story without reserve ticians anywhere can boast of so com- sured that it could not be bettered. told this story without reserve certain points different views were this Missionary Anniversary would be A. Morris; and all the latest dance ways established his absolute ver-

tion had arrived, but that there was held to-morrow, and the Committee music will be played. Ice cream and acity in spirit and in letter. During the other side of the House. to be no lawlessness counteranced. A regret the unavoidable circumstance other refreshments will be on sale his long and strenuous political car-After a quarter of a century's pervertible proof of the greatest to be no lawlessness counteranced. A that prevents placing the programme during the evening and a splendid supthat he was seldom, if ever, betrayed various public offices I have reached into unconscious inaccuracies. But the conclusion that he is a wholly congregation and their friends all ly making a name for themselves. It his principles were then and are still, truthful man, chiefly because he is alover the city should be aware of this is expected that the "At Home" will fixed, if he shows some squeezability so, with all his limitation, a wholly true man. Behind his intellectual enough to-day, a political philosophy. accomplishment is a character that Few men more consistently refer to extorts respect. He is not the least first principles in dealing with prob- naive in his complete honesty. The malems of the moment; and knowing chine of his mind may not be fitted himself how to reason, it is easy to for some work, but it is true and well inderstand that he has some contempt | wrought. His character may lack for those who know only how to desome of the graces; but its founda-Isabel Moore sailed for Barbado claim. His memory is extraordinary; tions are as adamant. The victim of his intellect is always under control; much small political meanness during Maxwell R. arrived at Burin, 23 days from Oporto, salt laden to LeFeuvre and his language, though precise, is the last few years of his public life guarded. It is probably little known he is himself incapable of anything Schr. Workman, sait laden from how much care often goes to the com- small or mean. Opinions may vary position of utterances which his dis- widely as to Sir Robert's political Santa Pola to St. John's, sheltered at cerning critics and political oppon- game. But the candid observer must S.S. Dagbjorg entered to load fish for Malaga for orders. ents hear with despairing admiration. admit that he has always played it Sir Robert can, indeed, speak well like a gentleman. While in the Legiswithout any kind of preparation. His lature, whether as Speaker, Colonial Unknown sttamer west at 11.30. Bar. 30.10; Ther. 42.
Weigh yourself the day you or mence to take Brick's Taste-ss, then weigh yourself two Don't miss the Grand Concert, to be held in Cochrane St. Lecture Room, Tuesday, April 19th, at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the Mission Circle. Those of the Mission Circle. Those taking part are as follows: Mestaking part are as follows: Mestaking part are as follows: Mestaking and engaged on a speech Weigh yourself two Weeks later and note the inWhen Senston Harding was only and engaged on a speech
When Senston Harding was only and engaged on a speech
When Senston Harding was only and engaged on a speech When Senston Harding was only and engaged on a speech entality is so disciplined and his in- Secretary or Prime Minister, he tenay, Lawrence, Trapnell, er, O'Neil and Woods. Menow he felt when the announcement as the "Duches," didn't like his poker of his nomination was made, he said: comparison and told him so. nd in attend-"I feel as though I had gone in with pair of eights and come out with a | Winard's Liniment for Burns, I

