MONDAY EV'G, OCT. 12, 1874

Local and Other Items.

TELEGRAPH EXTENSION.—The Montreal Telegraph Company have opened offices at Aberfoyle and Morrison.

NOT GOING AWAY.—In Mr. Jas. Massie's advertisement of sale of household effects, on Friday last, Mr. Massie was represented as about leaving for California. It should have read "Mrs." Massie.

GIRL IS HAND. with an illustration of Prof. Goldwin Smith's theory of "No Partyism." The bride suggested for the hitching-in of the various factions is the rather imaginary "bride" of Mr. Oliver Mowat to Miss M. C. Cameron. The Prof. himself officiates, being ably assisted by Mr. Howland, of "Canada First" propensities. At Day and Anderson's.

STILL ANOTHER.—Massie & Campbell received the other day from the builders, J. B. Armstrong & Co., a new wagon ordered for their out-of-town trade. The van is made in Armstrong's best style, very substantial and neatly finished. We learn also that Messrs. Loch & Weir are having a wagon made for their business, and that one of Armstrong's celebrated hearse is being built for a party in Ottawa.

THE CAB BUSINESS IN GUELPH.—One of the proofs of the progress made in Guelph of recent years, is the increased demand for accommodation by the travelling community. Not more than three years ago there was only one cab in the town, and now there are no less than seven, besides the omnibusses which run in connection with the hotels. The latest addition to the list of hacks is that by Mr. John Ewing, Paisley-street. He has purchased from a firm in Hamilton, at a cost of over $1,000, the cab which took first prize at the Provincial Fair. One feature of this hack is that the front portion of the body is of glass, and semi-circular in form, enabling passengers to see with ease what is going on outside. We learn that Mr. James Ewing has also purchased a new hack, which carried off the first prize at the Hamilton Central Fair.

NEW 'BUSS.—Messrs. Bookless & Galer, of the Royal Hotel, have given another evidence of their enterprise by purchasing, at a cost of $750, an elegant buss for use in connection with the "Royal." It was manufactured in New York by John Stevenson & Co., who are celebrated for their excellent workmanship in the building of omnibusses and coaches for street railways. The "Royal" Buss is built in the most substantial manner, and finished with all the improvements that elegance and comfort could suggest. The outside of the vehicle is painted in white and light yellow, neatly trimmed and lettered, while the inside is varnished, and decorated with chromatic paintings. The seats are cushioned with rich material, and altogether the "buss" is such as to favourably impress travellers with the character of the house to which it belongs.

Remember the Store—THE GOLDEN LION—where the once wonderful John Hogg was, and where the now wonderful J. D. WILLIAMSON is. Although unprincipled men have been trying to impose on the people that the Lion has been moved up street, the Lion is still in the old spot, next door to Mr. John Horsman's, Lower Wyndham street. Where the Lion is, there the Bargains are.
