Hon. C. Edwards Lester, Late U. S. Consul to Italy, author of "The Glory and Shame of England," "America's Advancement," etc., etc., etc., writes as follows:—

New York, August 1, 1886.
DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass.
Gentlemen:—A sense of gratitude and the desire to render a service to the public impel me to make the following statements:
My college career, at New Haven, was interrupted by a severe cold which so enfeebled me that, for ten years, I had a hard struggle for life. Hemorrhage from the bronchial passages was the result of almost every fresh exposure.
For years I was under treatment of the ablest practitioners without avail. At last I learned of

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which I used (moderately and in small doses) at the first recurrence of a cold or any chest difficulty, and from which I invariably found relief. This was over 25 years ago. With all sorts of exposure, in all sorts of climates, I have never, to this day, had any cold nor any affection of the throat or lungs which did not yield to AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL within 24 hours.

Of course I have never allowed myself to be without this remedy in all my voyages and travels. Under my own observation, it has cured a vast number of persons; while in acute cases of pulmonary inflammation, such as croup and diphtheria in children, it has been preserved through its effects.
I recommend its use in light but frequently doses. Properly used, it is in accordance with your directions, it is

A Priceless Blessing in any house. I speak earnestly because I feel earnestly. I have known many cases of apparently confirmed bronchitis and cough, with loss of voice, particularly among clergymen and other public speakers, perfectly cured by this medicine. Faithfully yours, C. EDWARDS LESTER.

No medicine is more conscientiously prepared, more powerful, or more highly concentrated than Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Its standard of excellence is the result of careful observation. This preparation is acknowledged by the medical profession to be the best blood purifier.

THE LARGEST HORSE IN THE WORLD.
—John Roll, residing in Redmon, Edgar county, Ill., is the owner of a horse that is twenty hands high, weighs 2,500 pounds and is said to be the largest horse in the world. It is 5 years old, never was off Roll's farm, never has been broken and never has been shod.
The blacksmith at Redmon is afraid to shoe the horse.

Fortify the system, by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, against the diseases peculiar to hot weather. This medicine induces a healthy action of the stomach, liver and bowels, causing them to prevent the accumulation of the poisons which produce disease.

Sunday morning, after an earnest address by the pastor, Rev. A. H. Munro, full of good advice, encouragement and admonition, 49 new members were given the right hand of fellowship and received into the membership of the Centre street Baptist church, St. Thomas. It was a very impressive scene and one that will not soon be forgotten.
The communion service followed, an unusually large number participating.
A number of candidates were immersed before a large audience in the evening.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? It is so sent at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's soothing syrup" for children teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers; there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs.
Winslow's soothing syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs.
Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

THE CANADA-AUSTRALIAN CABLE.—
The Japan Gazette says that H. M. S.
Egeria is to survey a track 200 miles wide for a telegraph cable from Australia to British Columbia, a task which is expected to last three years. The route is to be from a point on the Australian coast to the north end of New Zealand and Fiji and thence to the gimnus of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

BROKEN DOWN.
"After suffering from dyspepsia, kidney disease, loss of appetite and pain in the stomach, I was discouraged, I heard of Burdock Blood Bitters, took two bottles and am happy to say feel as well as ever." Mrs.
Rufus E. Merry, New Albany, N.S.

WELL TESTED.
"I was nearly dead with cholera morbus, one bottle of extract of Wild Strawberry cured me, and at another time I was so bad with summer complaint that I thought I would never get over it, when two bottles cured me." Mrs. E. Askett, Peel, Ont.

No injurious effects can follow the use of Ayer's Aque Cure. It contains an unfading antidote and specific for miasmatic poisons, together with remedial agents which purify and reinvigorate the system.

The Story of the Strange Men Who Came to Dutton.

Now it happened on a time that there were two men, when John A.
Macdonald was king in the land, and these men, having sought to, do were weary, and sighed and cried out, "Give us something to do, something to work at ere we die of lazy fever." And they were heard, for the prince of the High Schools hearkened to them afar off, and took pity on them and said, "Go ye unto a place named Dutton, where are blooming boys and graceful girls, and stay ye there for a time, and try them, for it is time for them to be tried."

And he smiled sideways as he said with covert meaning, "Yea, forsooth, it will be a trying time." But what he meant they knew not. Yet they thanked him withal, and packed their grips and went.

And when they had come unto the place whither he had sent them, behold they were angry and wrath and tore their hair, and would have put on sackcloth (but they had none.) And one said unto the other, "How have we offended the mighty prince of the schools that in this way he should wish them to die; for assuredly he has mocked us, and has laughed in our beards for there is no one that liveth here."

And so indeed it seemed to them at that time, and they wept exceedingly throughout that night.

But when the morning came, behold they heard noises exceeding strange, but when they had gone out behold it was a woman marching on the highway, and those that dwell around call her the captain, and they report that she maketh that noise continually—if not more frequently.

And the men marvelled that she did not die with exceeding haste, for seemed indeed that she were ready, as were all the rest.

And when the men had eaten and were filled, they wandered west and came at last to the trying place, where were gathered together many young men and maidens, some pretty and some not; and the former were more than the latter. And it seemed indeed that they had names, even funny ones—yea, very funny were there. For one of the maidens was called Claymore, and another was of the name of a bird, and to another was a name of exceeding length, so that a man standing at one end thereof could not be heard at the other. But of all these things mention will be made elsewhere —but all were nice.

And the men "tried" throughout those seven days, and much trying was done, until the end of the seventh day.
And when the seventh day was finished, behold the men packed their grips and went away. And in their hearts they bore a pleasant memory of the kindness of those they had met, and were indeed, after all, glad that they had come. And the names of those men were Dromio and Antiphilus. Now Dromio was a seeker after knowledge, and seeking thereafter, found the following verses:—

The day was bright, the sky was blue, All nature of a rosy hue, They took a parting smile or two And then set out for Dutton.

The girls are wondrous pretty there,
Their blooming cheeks are soft and fair;
And yet, 'd ye know, they didn't care To linger long in Dutton.

A pleasant time they had, 'tis true; They ever met with pleasures new,
And yet they felt it sometimes blue, Sitting alone in Dutton.

The girls they've met will always be A source of pleasant memory.
They hope that all again they'll see When they come back to Dutton.

Martyrs to Headache Seek relief in vain, until they begin to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Then they regret the years of suffering they might have escaped had they tried this remedy earlier. The trouble was constitutional not local; and until Ayer's Sarsaparilla did its effective work as an Alterative and Blood Purifier, they were compelled to suffer.

The wife of Samuel Page, 21 Austin st., Lowell, Mass., was, for a long time, subject to severe headaches, the result of stomach and liver disorders. A perfect cure has been effected by Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Frank Roberts, 727 Washington st., Boston, says that he formerly had terrible headaches, and until he took Ayer's Sarsaparilla, never found any medicine that would give

Permanent Relief.
"Every Spring, for years," writes Lizzie W. DeVeau, 262 Fifth street, Brooklyn, N. Y., "I have had intolerable headaches. I commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla last March, and have not had a headache since that time."

"I suffered from headache, indigestion, and debility, and was hardly able to drag myself about the house," writes Mrs. M. M. Lewis, of A. St. Lowell, Mass. "Ayer's Sarsaparilla has worked a marvelous change in my case. I now feel strong and well as ever."

Jonas Garman, Esq., of Lykens, Pa., writes, "For years I have suffered dreadfully, every Spring, from headache, caused by impurity of the blood and biliousness. It seemed for days and weeks that my head would split open.
Nothing relieved me till I took Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has cured me completely."

When Mrs. Geneva Bolanger, of 24 Bridge st., Springfield, Mass., began to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, she had suffered for some years from a serious affection of the kidneys. Every Spring, from headache, was afflicted with headache, loss of appetite, and indigestion. A friend suggested her to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which benefited her wonderfully. Her health is now perfect. Martyrs to headache should try

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,
