The higher the mercury climbs the lower goes our prices. It is a mistake for you to miss seeing our new purchases. One of the greatest pleasures afforded us in our trip east was one in which we can share—buying goods cheap. Come in and take advantage of the bargains we were enabled to secure for you.

Stratford, Aug. 13.—One of the most determined attempts at murder was made in the Grand Trunk shops as a machinist, yesterday afternoon, when he did his utmost to cut his wife's throat. It appears that about two weeks ago Christie returned from a visit to Montreal, where he got on a debauch. Shortly after returning to Stratford Christie made the first attempt to take his wife's life, but was foiled.

It is Interrupted by the Ordinances the Town of Hempstead.

Wantagh, L. I., Aug. 13 .- Among the bicyclists who were arrested here on Sunday for violating the ordinance of the town of Hempstead prohibiting bicycle riding on the sidewalks were a young woman and a young man. When they were arraigned before Justice Seaman they declared they were on their wedding tour. They said they were Mr. and Mrs. Truman, of Philadelphia. The bride was very pretty, and Constable Wilson looked as if he had committed an offense against the laws of the State in arresting a bridal The bride tearfully told Justice Seaman that they were both ignorant of the law and had no intention of breaking it. Justice Seaman asked them many questions allowable in a boys neared the crossing they noticed a cow which had strayed away from the friend's house. Young Hyland evidently got out of the rig to chase to send them up for life. He delivered a lecture on the duties of a young married couple, and incidentally re-ferred to bicycling. After the jecture he said to the prisoners: "If I should decide to let you go, will you promise me that you will always live happily together and never quarrel? "Oh, judge," exclaimed the bride, through her tears, "we will never quarrel," and then she looked at her "No, never," said the bridegroom.

"Then go in peace," said the justice,
"and may God bless you."
