BRAVED HORSE, NEVER LOST NOTE

Mme. Nordica Again Displays fleroism on the Opera House Stage.

Mme. Nordica, heroine of the sensations of the Metropolitan Opera House this season, was a heroine again last night. Only last Saturday she dodged a massive drop which fell from above the proscenium opening without disturbing her vocal or physical equilibrium. Earlier in the season she put out an incipient fire on the stage at imminent risk of her filmy lingerie. Last night she made her debut as an animal trainer.

The music drama was, "The Goetterdammerung," and Mme. Nordica was singing the leading role of Brunhilde Hagen and Gunther, fight a duel with swords. They are supposed to throw their weapons to one side, so as no

He's for Reciprocity London, March 14.-Samuel W. Mc-Call, U. S. congressman for Massachusetts, who contributes a long article in the Standard in favor of a reciprocity between Canada and the States, points out the proportion of the population of Canada as their best customers, and condemns as artificial the attempts to create markets in Great Britain for Canadian wheat. He says who can doubt that it would be better for all concerned for the wheat in Manitoba to find its way to the bakers' shops in England through the mills at Minneapolis and St. Paul. He thinks it would be a benefit to the people in the States to destroy, or at least lower, the barriers that keep out the important products of Canada. In a column of comment, the Standand regards the article as remarkable, and says the ultimate issue underlying large questions of fiscal policy is one

Because, in one day of ten hours, recently, the almshouse barber of Bethnal Green, London, shaved 230 men, there is some talk of raising his wages. IT KEEPS THE MUSCLES PLIANT .-Men given to muscular sports and exerises and those who suffer muscular sains from bicycle riding, will find Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil something trying. As a lubricant it will keep the muscles pliable and free from pains which often follow constant use of them, out softening them or impairing their strength. For bruises, sprains and contusions it is without a peer. A homing pigeon, five months old, released from the Isle of Man, with
