FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

$13 50 per ton. Straw remained unchanged in price, all the better quality selling readily at $8, while poorer quality brought $7.50. Oats were inclined to be scarce this morning, though there was a good demand. The price, too, was somewhat easier, $1 22 being the prevailing figure.

Wheat, too, showed a tendency to drop, the small supply that was offered selling at $1.05 per bu.

There is a continued strong supply for all lines of grain, and so, far the supply has not nearly equalled the demand. It is expected, too, that owing to the good prices paid on vesterday's market there. prices paid on vesterday's market there will be a good turnout on Saturday.
