COURT RULES ON CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

BOSTON, Jan. 12.—Accounts of the trustees of the Christian Science Publishing Society, whose resignations were accepted by Judge Crosby of the supreme court yesterday, were the subject of a hearing before him today. The court received from the directors of the Christian Science (Scientist) a formal answer to the trustees' petition for approval of the accounts. In the answer the directors make certain charges against the trustees and reserve the right to make others when they have had opportunity to examine the accounts.

ATLANTIC COAST BLOW KILLS ONE

HALIFAX, Jan. 12.—The Atlantic coast storm which arrived at Halifax at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, accompanied by heavy rains, died away about noon today. Only one casualty has been reported, the drowning of Mrs. Edward Jollimore, who was blown down an embankment into the Northwest Arm at Jollimore.
 Incoming steamers today reported a wild night at sea. Steam Trawler Venosta arrived from the banks in the midst of the gale, and the captain reported that he had more than enough rain to wash the ice from his craft. A southeast gale varying from 30 to 45 miles an hour was general over Nova Scotia, but no shipping or other damage was reported.

FIND NEWBURY CAN HOLD SEAT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Truman H. Newberry was declared by the Senate today to be entitled to the seat which he now holds and which was made the basis of contest by Henry Ford, his Democratic opponent, in the 1918 Michigan senatorial election.

IS IT IMPORTANT WHERE YOU BUY YOUR MEATS?

Do you go along in a half-hearted manner and buy at any old meat shop? Do you really think this is first-quality meat I am buying? Do you know whether your butcher goes in for quality or for price? In short, are you getting results for the money you are giving him? It is very important where you shop. Meat is one of the Big Four necessities in your daily life. You and your family need good, nourishing meat to put them out in the world fit for the hard knocks. Our abattoir and farm lies in the very center of one of the finest cattle-raising districts in the world. We are right on the spot to select the choicest animals before they go to market, thus enabling us to give you super-quality week in and week out.
