It was claimed and feared by the Grit press, that the addition of 125 Indians to the voter's list would ensure the success of the Government candidate, but as nearly as we can learn, the Indians have cast in their lot with the Grit party, until intelligence, christianity and civilization shall have rescued them from such an unholy alliance. Indians, Annexationists, Secessionists, and Rebels, are some of the more prominent elements in the present constitution of the Grit party, led by Mr. Blake the apologist, for the murderer Riel, and from such a combination, good Lord deliver us.

Instances of extreme old age are reported from Russia. The Novosti, a Russian journal announces the death, in the almshouse of St. Petersburg, of a man aged one hundred and twenty-two years, who had been an inmate since 1818. His mental faculties were preserved up to the time of his death, and his general health was excellent up to the age of one hundred and eighteen, when he com-

A runaway train went twenty miles over the West Jersey Railroad on Saturday morning, and was prevented from doing serious damage only by the presence of mind of a farmer's boy. The train was standing at the Millville depot while the hands were at breakfast, when suddenly the throttle opened and the engine started up the road, with no one on board to control it. Word was sent to Vineland to run the train on an open switch, but there was delay in getting the Vineland operator, and the train dashed through the town unchecked. A few miles further on, the steam gave out and the train stopped. A farmer's son grasped the situation, and, jumping on the locumotive, blew its whistle at intervals to warn approaching trains. A few minutes later an express train
