And her mind as free as air;
If her beauty goes slone,
Tis to me as if twere none,
May I find a woman rich,
And not of too high a pitch;
If that pride should cause disdain
Tell me, lover, where's thy gain?
May I find a woman wise,
And her falsehood not disguise;
Hath she wit as she hath will,
Double arm'd she is to fill,
May I find a woman kind,
And not way ring like the wind—
How should I call that love mine,
When 's his and his and thine?
May I find a woman true;
There is beauty, love and wit;
