A BISHOP ON HIS TRAVELS. sation Caused by the Arrival of a adian at the Virginia Springs. Sulphur Letter in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A personage conspicuous, but not for size, is Bishop Hellmuth of London, Canada—hishop general of the provinces his full title is. He is, in stature, the smallest man at White Sulphur, but his clothes look as if the tailor had measured him by his intellectual greatness. The skirts of his broadcloth coat are absurdly near the intellectual greatness. The skirts of dibroadcloth coat are absurdly near the bund, while his pantaloons are reefed up bund his ankles in a manner to present a lernative of a wanton waste of cloth no "galluses." The little bishop comstess this odd costume with a small-buned, broad-brimmed, black felt hat, nich he wears well drawn down on the ck of his fiead. There is no lack of outland respect shown him, as the continual ting of hats as he passes bears witness, his deference seems to be a source of ingled gratification and wonderment to im. Sometimes after returning an unsually reverent greeting he will turn and ook after the departing form with a half-leased and a half-pazzled expression as if irginia manners were a matter for some turk.

out of the bishop's hearing there is a little good-natured fun poked at him and his queer ways. "Did you see him the night before he got here?" asked one. "Well, he was pretty near distracted about his value, a little rusty affair. When I saw him I thought he must be a jewelry peddler with his stock in that 'bag,' as he called it. 'I say,' he exclaimed excitedly to the porter as soon as he got out of the omnibus, 'has my bag come?' The nigger wasn't used to such quick talk, and all he could stammer out was: 'I dunno, sah; but I 'spec not, sah.' When he registered he laid down a half dollar and you ought to have seen that clerk stare."

From the Hamilton Spectator. Ald. Evans, president of the great central fair, who was in Toronto a day or two ago attending the Toronto a day or two ago attending the Toronto exhibition, was seen this morning by a Spectator reporter. "I saw nothing in their exhibition that was worth while copying," said Ald. Evans. "The fact is, in several departments, especially in machinery and agriculture, the exhibition is greatly inferior to last year's.

Great Negligence.

There is great neglect with most people to maintain a regular action of the bowels, which causes much disease. Burdock Blood Bitters cure constipation.

A failure to relieve or cure summer complaints can never be truthfully applied to Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. All dealers sell it. 2.4.6

The secret of economy lies in the buying f upholstering, such as parlor or drawing-room suites, in the purchaser going to an establishment where they make it a specialty of manufacturing first-class goods. T. F. Cummings, 349 Yonge street, has the reputation of being an experienced workman, who thoroughly understands his business. You can rest fully assured of getting what you want, and at reasonable figures.

People who wish to note the progress Toronto is making ought to visit West Toronto Junction. It is within a few minutes of the Union station by the trains of either the Ontario and Quebec and the Grand Trunk or the Northern. The junction station of the C. P. R. is now in full blast and freight and passenger trains are stopping there every short while. New houses are going up all round while the plans of many handsome ones are still in the hands of the architects. Real estate in the neighborhood has steadily risen in value and promises to advance still more rapidly. A lot or block in this locality is the best investment a workingman or capitalist can go into. It will double itself in two years just as Parkdale, Brockton and the whole west end has done. Some of the best lots in West Toronto are to be had from George Clarke, 295 Yonge street.

Economical of Space.

From the Chicago Times.

A western circus recently ordered a large dvertising poster to be printed, and then kicked because there was so much sky in it. "I ain't agoin' to advertise the sky," he said to the lithographer. "I paid youto advertise my show. Drop a few camels and stick 'em up there. I ain't agoin' to have all that good space run waste."

THE NEW STRAWBERRY, JERSEY QUEEN JAMES JOHNSTON, OF FERM NACH PIACE,

has pleasure in announcing to the public that he is now prepared to supply from one to two hundred thousand plants of three of the best varieties for this climate now cultivated, namely, Jersey Queen, Sharpless and Great American. The latter is one of the most prolific bearers I ever grew, medium to large size, high flavored, and fine form, but requires to be grown in hills or narrow rows in the open field well exposed to the sun. SHARPLESS, videly known and very popular. Hear what say about it: Sharpless—Very large, an average specimen measuring one and a half inches in diameter, either way; generally oblong, narrowing to the apex, irregular, often flattened; clear light red, with a smooth shining surface; firm, sweet, with a delicate aroma; surface; firm, sweet, with a smooth shining surface; firm, sweet, with a delicate aroma; excellent quality; remarkably vigorous and luxuriant; hardy and prolific. In consequence of their vigorous habit, long roots and ample foliage, the plants are capable of resisting severe drought, and cold; season medium to late. We can still recommend this as one of the largest and best strawberries in cultivation. Our first description, published in 1877, has been verified to the letter. We can only add that the experience of the last few years confirms the opinion we first formed of its value; but the plants must be set farther apart than other sorts and grown in hills or narrow rows, and the soil must be rich. It is un; roductive in matted beds.

JERSEY QUEEN. great acquisition to strawberry growers.

Just hear what the Honorable Marshal P. Wilder

Monorable Marshall P. Wilder

says of this great strawberry:—"The largest and most luxuriant plant we have ever seen: appearing to thrive under any and all circumstances: easily grown, making vigorous runners, never burning or blighting its foliage, invariably bearing the largest fruit of fine form and first quality: ccloring evenly, and perfectly brilliant and beautiful; fine in texture, solid and firm, yet melting, high flavored and lucious. The very best of all to carry and keep. The crop under high culture, in both quantity and quality, and under neglect and abuse, has astonished every one acquainted with its performance. With the terrible heat and drougth pravailing, it neither faltered nor failed in any sepect, but appeared as thriving and luxuriant as in more favourable seasons. The most trying circumstances do not seem to affect it, as under the action of the severe frost of 1878, in the most exposed situation, when every other in its vicinity was nearly destroyed, it seemed but slightly affected, as it bore the largest and finest crop over seen (previous to that time) upon our grounds. The same being exhibited at the New York Horticultural society of that year (1878), held at Gilmore's Garden, New York city, taking First Prize as the best in the exhibition. At the close of the three days trial of very warm, moist weather, it was found that nearly every plate of berries exhibited was a mass of blue mold. Yet the Jersey Queen presented an appearance enarly as firm and fresh as when first placed upon the officers as being unequalled in the most desirable qualities. "The berry is coneshaped, slightly flattened at the point, and in very large specimens partake of the oblong or oval form, yet smooth and perfectly distributed as can be brangined, presenting an appearance that cannot be approached, in beauty by any other." It succeeds splendidly with us. I will dig, trim, puddle and ship to any order 100 plants and upwards, price 310 per 1000, and 32 per one hundred rate up to 500 plants. Cash in all cases mus
