the home team triumphed, entitling it to hold the trophy for another year.

It was after 2 o'clock when the visitors appeared at the rink, as they had been delayed by an accident on the Grand Trunk, over which they came from Toronto, and had then taken lunch at the Tifft House.

The Torontos had the misfortune to loss four "stanes" by the way, but their loss was repaired by the loar of as many Caledonian "balls."

The resultance of the caledonians were for the most called after 15 ends had been played. It was the first to finish, then came No. 2, which the Caledonians wen 22 to 15, as has been stated. The next to play the stipulated 22 ends was rink 4, the visitors winning by 22 to 21. The hearts of the Caledonian sympathizers now began to sink. Everything depended on No. 1. Even though it has never been known to fail before it looked very much as if it must this time. Everything seemed to conspire against it. The last shot of the visitors had gone a little astray and uninnot be dislodged. The last shot of the twistors had gone a little astray and unintentionally bettered the position of the Caledonians. All depended on Skip C. Berrick. He was equal to the occasion. With a well-directed shot he not only dislodged two stones of the three but in replacing them with those of his own side, and the battle was won for the Caledonians. Buffalo did not beat Toronto yesterda until the very last "channel stone" wa bowled.

Twenty-five years or more ago, or, to be more exact, in 1867, Ex-Mayor Segville of Buffallo and Mr. Thompson of Toronto, both enthusiastic "brithers of the broom," both enthusiastic "brithers of the broom," made a bet on the result of a certain match between representative teams of their respective cities. The match was played, and as there was no draw one of necessity won and the other lost. The outcome of it sil was that Messrs. Scoville and Thompson agreed to jointly purchase a $400 trophy in the shape of a solid gold medal, for the possession of which the Torontos of Canada and the Caledonians of Buffalo should battle yearly, and this they have done except in 1880, when there was no ice, and in 1870 for some reason now forgotten. This year's game was played at the Ellicott-street Rink, and if there was ever a battle royal on the ice this was it. Both In fact the only player of the whole 32 who toole part in the fuital match in 1885, and in every one since was Thomas McGaw, proprietor of the Queen's Hotel, Toronto. Another old-timer, John Walls, proved an efficient umpire.

After the 11th end an intermission of 10 minutes was given for lunch. Upon the close of the match the Caledonians and their visitors repaired to the Tiff House to enjoy an elegant banquet, at which plates were laid for 30.
