The same objection might be urged against the parables of our Lord, which, though fiction, are full of heavenly truth. The second objection was "They are love stories." Well, said the preacher, they are none the worse for that. Love he described as one of the most ennobling and sublimest passions of the human heart. Then for an hour young Coburn talked of "the filth of the confessional." He talked of priests and penitents who had been ruined, and of mmoral practices in nunneries, giving citations from Maria Monk, the Escaped Nun, Father Chiniquy and others.

Fallen inmates of the darkest house of infamy in this city can be placed on their feet again, but this chance is denied the poor deluded women who are robbed of their virtue and immured in nunneries, from which there is no escape save the gate of death. When the priests object to the expression I used at Woodgreen Tabernace they had better be careful. The comparison of the house of infamy with the nunnery might not be favorable to the latter.

gave some salutary advice on the hearers against three tendencies in modern literature: (1) picturing forms of vice in false colors; (2) the tendency to excuse sin in the characters portrayed; and (3) the cool indifference in which so many writers treat the Christian religion. Novels with a true, good purpose he praised.

They Know a Good Thing.

There appears to be a strong and in man will more than likely be his own successor.

In the Three Rivers district some good fighting may be expected, yet nothing but dissensions can prevent the Ministerialists from holding their own. The City of Three Rivers and the County of St. Maurice will be one division, and Sir Hector Lange-vin's election would be easy enough if the present representative of St. an easy victory to a man who has done noble service to Canada and to the Conservative party. In Champlain the Liberal candidate will probably be Dr. Tancrede Tru-del, although the name of Dr. Beau-soleil of Montreal, and brother of the member for Berthier, has been pretty pears to be one of the good things which is always ready to their hand.

The World correspondent also learns that Mr. Calixte Leboeuf, ex-president of the Club Nationale in this city, and the late Premier Mercier's bete noire, has been as good as selected to con-test Beauharnois with the popular deputy speaker, Mr. Bergeron. As both gentlemen are powerful speakers on the stump a great deal of interest will be centred in this constituency.

The Eastrn Townships will also be the scene of several bitter contests, and some new men will most likely come to the front, more especially in the Conservative interest.

Mr. Rider, M.P., who captured Stanstead from the Hon. Mr. Colby at the last general election, will have a particularly able and eloquent man pitted against him in the person of Mr. Moore, and the Conservatives and evening, for three days, at the expiration of which time I was completely sured."

Nine out of ten women are troubled more or less by weakness and diseases peculiar to their sex. It is so because they do not take proper care of themselves—because they neglect little ills and little precautions. A woman in perfectly hearty health goes through her and little precautions. A woman in perfectly hearty health goes through her time of trial with comparative ease. The thing to do then, is to make all expectant mothers healthy—to strengthen them generally and locally. It is a powerful invigorant and nervine.
It soothes and strengthens the nerves and acts directly on the ferminine organism in regular performance of all its functions at all times. Taken during gestation it robs child-birth of its dangers to both mother and child, by preparing the system for de-livery thereby shortening labor, lessen-ing pain and abbreviating the period of confinement.
