

SCHOOL SCRIBBLERS WILL BE DOUBLED IN SIZE BUT PRICE WILL BE THE SAME

Lowered Cost of Paper Influences Cost of School Stationery, Writing Books and Exercise Pads. Although a school term has just ended and it will be quite a time before another one starts, parents of London school children will doubtless be pleased to hear that scribbler's writing books and school stationery in general will not be such a burden on their pockets in the future as they have been in the past three or four years. It is thought, however, that the children themselves will view the change with complete indifference.

RESPECTABLE SCHOLARSHIP

Responsibility For New Structure Rests With Finance Body. RELIEF IS NECESSARY. Accommodation Insufficient For Children of District.

The proposed eight-room school which the Board of Education some time ago decided to erect on Dakin street, is still very much in abeyance. The decision of the City Council to refer the entire question to the special finance commission some time ago was the last decisive move made and according to opinions expressed in board circles to-day this will prevent a definite arrangement for some time. It is whether there is a possibility of some action being taken before the opening of the fall term, is a question which apparently no one is able to answer.

FISHERY ARE CAREFULLY CARED FOR

According To Report Made For County By Inspector Kelly. 280 WARDS IN MIDDLESEX. Total of 1,000 Children Come Under Local Jurisdiction.

Inspector Walter E. Kelly, of the Children's Aid Society, has just completed an inspection of the society's wards in Middlesex County, having motored more than 1,000 miles in his visits to the various children. The inspection, he states, was most satisfactory in every way and he paid a high tribute to the care the foster parents are giving to the boys and girls in their charge.

GARBAGE WAGONS MUST BE OUTFITTED

Necessary To Comply With New Civic By-Law. Although It May Inconvenience District Farmers.

As the result of the by-law calling for lights on all vehicles the garbage department will be forced to purchase for the little two-wheeled vehicles which the street sweepers use. This is the opinion expressed by City Engineer Brazier to-day in answer to a query regarding the situation. These vehicles will require lights for about one hour daily during the winter months, as they are on the streets until after 5 o'clock p. m.

Spiritual Things That Matter, Dr. Whidden's View. TALBOT STREET SERMON. West Not Indispensable, Says Brandon President.

"God wants us Westerners, who have faced five seasons' failures, to remember that although the material is needed we are not an absolutely indispensable part of the nation." These words were spoken last evening by Rev. Howard P. Whidden, L.L.D., president of the Brandon College, Brandon, Man., to illustrate in the course of a sermon preached at the Talbot Street Baptist Church that a nation is not merely made up of a mass of people and their money and possessions, but that certain spiritual and traditional customs and ideals play a vital part in the constituting of a nation.

LESS DANGER OF ACCIDENTS

Although It May Inconvenience District Farmers. CANADA'S NATIONAL DAY. A nation is more than all the people's wealth and the possible wealth of the country. It is more than all the wealth of the seas and streams and forests, and yet it is these things properly held in trust for the building of the nation that help to form the nation.

TO APPEAL AGAINST FINING OF AUTOISTS

London Motor League Will Combat Wholesale Summoning by County Police. In the event of county constables in some of the districts around London resuming the activity which resulted last summer in so many car owners being fined the London Motor League will take prompt action, and summoning for a time summons were being issued wholesale and it was stated to The Free Press that at times constables and magistrates in some sections have issued hundreds of dollars a month. Many of the motorists preferred to settle the cases by paying costs and not appearing in court, and as there were at times from 50 to 75 charges a day being laid the costs ran into large figures.

COLLEGIATE SUMMER SCHOOL

Economy Responsible For Action By Trustees. SUPPLEMENTARY EXAMS. Pupils Will Have To Depend On Own Initiative. Collegiate students who failed last week to pass all of their final examinations will not have the advantage of a summer school in which to study for the first time and prove themselves in the interests of economy the institution of a vacation school has been abandoned this year and pupils will have to depend on their own initiative and private tutelage to qualify for the tests after the holidays.

ONE THOUSAND BATHING SUITS NOT ENOUGH FOR KIDDIES NOW

London will have supervised swimming facilities for its kiddies north as well as the south branch of the Thames by the end of this week. The bathing pool at Birckett's Flats, in the southeastern section of the city, is being augmented by a similar "hole" on the river at the beginning of Georgetown, and the latter will be ready by Saturday at the latest, it is expected.
