AN exchange says:—"Why were well on to 1,000 less votes recorded in the townships of one county than were polled three years ago? Part of the falling off may doubtless be accounted for by the temporary absence of a number of farmers on Western harvest excursions. The principal cause is in the actual decline of rural population. The depopulation of rural Ontario is still going on."
22 BOYS' SUITS, sizes 23 to 26, prices $1.25 to $1.50, worth double.—SWIFT'S.

IT is getting time to think about candidates for municipal offices. The time to press representative men into municipal service before their places are usurped by office-seekers is the present. No more important public place exists than upon the boards which govern our municipalities.

ABOUT twenty young ladies surprised Miss La Mura Dodds at her home last Thursday evening and presented her with a miscellaneous ante-nuptial shower. The presents were placed in a very complete miniature of the new Sterling Bank building and each one had attached a bank deposit slip depositing the gift to the credit of the bride-elect. Accompanying the presents was a Sterling Bank cheque for best wishes and happiness signed by the donors of the presents. The "shower" was unique.

THE purchaser of a fairly large order from a local house last week asked for a year's credit on the purchase, and his request was "O.K.'d" by the storekeeper. On reading the note, the purchaser said, "Why, you are charging me 6 per cent. interest on the deal!" "Certainly," replied the merchant, "that's what I have to pay." "Why," said the purchaser, "I'll draw you a check. My money is only getting 3 per cent at the bank." "Deep study of the foregoing will reveal a moral to the bright reader."

THE delivery clerk in the post-office has much to annoy her. There is a drummer who wants any letter that may come for him during the next ten days forwarded to him at London or Toronto; the man who wants to know if a letter posted now will go before the 3 o'clock train; the boss mailed a letter without a stamp and wants it back; six men who forgot their box keys and want their mail handed out to them; the woman who knows there must be a letter for her, and asks the clerk to "look again please"; and the schoolboy or girl who goes in regularly three times a day to ask for mail when they do not get a letter or a paper in a week.

PERSONAL.

P. J. Dodds was in Toronto on business Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith returned from the western trip last week.

Mrs. T. Hillary Willoughby and daughter, Ethyl, spent a few days in Strathroy this week.

Mr. George Hicks, Courtright, is relieving Manager Wykesmith, of the Sterling Bank, this week, while the latter is on his holidays.

Bargains in Wall Paper.

In order to make room for next year's papers we have cut the prices of our wall papers in two. This means a 50c. paper will cost you just 25c. Everything is marked in plain figures. Nearly all these patterns are this season's design. Anyone intending papering this fall will be well repaid for a look through our samples.

TAYLOR & SON.

Hay—Ladd.

Tecumseh, Mich., Oct. 19.—A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Teachout of this place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock when Miss Sadie Grace Ladd and H. Kenneth Hay were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. R. Reid, pastor of the Presbyterian church. After congratulations a wedding dinner was served.

The bride has made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Teachout for the past ten years, and is popular in Tecumseh. Mr. Hay is one of Tecumseh's prominent young business men, being engaged in the bakery and confectionery business. He is the son of the late Rev. E. R. Hay, Congregational minister of Watford, Ont. and came to Tecumseh eight years ago. The couple left on the 3.03 train for a trip to Detroit and Watford, Ont., and on their return will begin housekeeping in the Caley house here, which has already been furnished.

MEN'S MISSIONARY MEETING.

A meeting in the interests of the Men's Missionary Convention to be held in London on November 6th, 7th and 8th, was held in the Council Chamber, Watford, on Tuesday afternoon. Rev. S. P. Irwin was asked to give the chair and Rev. T. M. Mead acted as Secretary of the meeting.

Mr. A. J. Robinson, of London, executive secretary, addressed the meeting, outlining the objects and workings of the movement. This convention, he said, was undoubtedly among the most important and significant gatherings of a religious character ever convened in this community. Its purpose is to bring together the leading laymen and clergymen of every Protestant church within the district, in a three days' inspirational and educational study of the Missionary Problem. That it will be an occasion of unusual interest is assured by the promised presence of Robert E. Spear, of New York, one of the recognized world leaders in missionary enterprise to-day, and Sir Andrew Fraser, for 37 years Governor-general of Bengal, India, now of Scotland, who has gained a unique reputation as one of the most effective and ardent advocates of the missionary cause among the laymen. Besides these two, there will be several of the outstanding leaders, both lay and clerical, from each of the churches of Canada, whose eloquence and influence need no comment. The greater part of the third day will be devoted entirely to denominational conferences, on "Our Church's Share of the Task" which will be in a practical sense, the climax of the Convention. On the last day of the Convention there will be a meeting for the ladies in St. Andrew's Hall at 2.15 in the afternoon at which Sir Andrew Fraser and others will speak.

Mr. E. E. Reid, of London, Finance Chairman of the Convention, also made a few remarks urging laymen to take hold of the matter in a business-like manner. Moved by Rev. E. B. Home, seconded by Mr. J. H. Hume and carried—"That a cordial vote of thanks be tendered to the gentlemen who have addressed the meeting, and that we express our entire and cordial approval of the work, and pledge ourselves to do our utmost to forward the movement and bring the matter to the attention of others."

The railroads will issue tickets at a single fare to delegates and their ladies attending these meetings on Nov. 6th, 7th and 8th. Full particulars can be had from the local secretary, Rev. T. M. Mead, or from any of the local clergyman.

The Petrolia Topic will not be published next week. Annual holiday.

Geo. Bell, one of the oldest and most esteemed residents of Plympton, died on Saturday last in his 87th year. Mr. Bell had not been feeling very well for some time but nothing serious was thought until last Tuesday, when his condition became worse. Mr. Bell is survived by his widow and one daughter.

SEND in the news.

A Collect for Thanksgiving Day.

I thank thee, Father, for thy sky,
Wherein thy little sparrows fly;
For unseen hands that build and break
The clove and plank for thy sake,
This fleeting beauty, high and wild,
Toward which I wonder as a child.

And thanks for morning's stir and light
And for the folding hush of night;
For those high deities that spread
The star filled chasm overhead;
For elfin chemistries that yield
The gases fires of the April field;
For all the foam and surge of bloom,
For leaves gone glorious to their doom—
All the wild loveliness that can
Touch the immortal in a man.

Father of Life, I thank thee, too,
For old acquaintance, near and true;
For friends who came into my day
For those who love me as I love;
For faith that held on to the last,
For all sweet memories of the past—
Dear memories of my dear at hand,
Long thoughts of life and of life's end,
That make me know the light conceals
A deeper world than it reveals.

LYCEUM SERIES OF HIGH-CLASS CONCERTS.

The young people of the Presbyterian Church deserve commendation for their enterprise in securing for Watford the Redpath Lyceum Series of High Class Concerts. Nothing better has ever been presented in the town. All the artists are at the head of their profession and have appeared in the part in all the large American cities in company with such celebrities as Melba, Calve, Schumann-Heink, and others. The Watford public is offered at home and at moderate prices the very best entertainments that are to be had in the large cities.

The series opens on Nov. 8th with the well known Harpists and Entertainers, Rogers and Grilley.

On Dec 5th, John B. Ratto, the famous Italian impersonator, the best in the world, will be the chief artist. He will be assisted by a singer.

On Feb. 3rd, Mr. Ralph Bingham, America's greatest entertainer, will have the evening.

And, on March 21st, the celebrated Kellogg-Haines Opera Company, whose culture they appear here last spring, owing to illness, disappointed so many, will furnish a treat to all lovers of music.

The seats have been placed at 50 cents and 35 cents, remarkably low prices for such quality. But in addition tickets will be sold for the series of four entertainments for $1.75, and seats may be reserved for the entire series. Do not miss the best thing in years.

The concerts will be given in Taylor's Lyceum. Plan at McLaren's drug store.

WYKESMITH—DODDS.

A simplicity as charming as it is unusual characterized every detail of the wedding of Miss LaMura Mary Dodds, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dodds, to Mr. William Aldrich Wykesmith, local manager of the Sterling Bank, which was solemnized on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock in Trinity church, Watford.

Master Valore Dodds, the young brother of the bride, presided at the organ and played the bride's chorus from Lohengrin. The contracting couple took their places in front of the altar.

The bride, who is one of Watford's prettiest young ladies, was never prettier than in her wedding gown of embroidered net over white satin with tulle veil, pearl trimmings and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses.

She was given away by her father and was unattended except for a matron of honor, Mrs. W. H. French, of Sarnia, who wore king-blue silk and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. P. Irwin, B.A., rector of the parish, and was witnessed only by the family and a few intimate friends. After the impressive service was over the bridal party partook of an epicurean dejeuner at "Villafranca," the residence of the bride's parents, after which they drove to Wyaning and took the 12.25 express for Detroit where they will spend their honeymoon. The bride's going-away gown was a brown tailor-made suit with hat to match.

The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome pearl sunburst, and the matron of honor also received a sunburst from the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wykesmith will be at home after November 6th and will take up housekeeping on Huron street.

The Guide-Advocate joins with the many friends of the young couple in wishing them much happiness.
