Farm For Sale or To Rent

THIS FARM IS COMPRISED OF THE fourteenth Concession of Brooke Tp., and contains eighty acres, more or less. On the farm is situated a good storey and a half frame house, frame barn and shed. There is a rock well near the house. There are some pear and plum trees and an apple orchard. For further particulars apply to ISAAC J. COWAN, on N.H. Lot 27, 6th Con. Warwick Tp., or Box 145, Watford P.O., Ont.

Time works quick changes in the growing girl. Pig-tails and short skirts are soon forgotten in the maturer charms of the debutante. Sometimes, though, you will ache for a picture of her just as she romped in from school or play. Think how she would like one, too, in the after years—to show her friends and possibly her children. Make the appointment while the thought is fresh in your mind.

Scarcity of Baskets Hinders Fruit Shipping

Never in the history of the fruit-growing industry of the Niagara Peninsula have the farmers been so despondent as they are at the present time. Not on account of crop prospects, as there is every variety of fruit in abundance, especially pears and peaches. In fact, the peach crop promises to be a record one. The main trouble is the basket situation, and it has now reached a crisis. Eleven-quart baskets, usually sold around $40 to $45 a thousand, have already advanced to $65, and none to be had even at that price. Six-quart baskets, usually sold at $24 a thousand, are now selling at $35, and another advance of five dollars is to take place on Monday. What the growers will do when the main crop matures remains to be seen but unless something unforeseen turns up within the next few days, thousands of bushels of fruit will go waste. Matters are equally as bad in the Beausville district, also over the river in New York State. At present most of the fruit is going forward in small baskets.

HOW TO TREAT ALL SKIN TROUBLE

Greasy Ointments No Use—Must Be Cured Through the Blood

It is not a good thing for people with a tendency to have pimples and a blotchy complexion to smear themselves with greasy ointments. In fact they couldn't do anything worse, because the grease clogs the pores of the skin, making the disease worse. When there is an irritating rash a soothing boracic wash may help allay the pain or itching, but of course it doesn't cure the trouble. Skin complaints arise from an impure condition of the blood and will persist until the blood is purified. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured many cases of eczema and skin diseases because they make new, rich blood that drives out the impurities, clears the skin and imparts a glow of health. The following proof is offered. Mrs. Fred Tremble, Gunter, Tremble, Ont., says:—"For more than a year I was steadily afflicted with salt rheum or eczema. My hands were so sore that I could not put them in water without the skin cracking open. I tried all sorts of ointments recommended for the trouble, but they did not do me a particle of good. I was told Dr. Williams' Pink Pills would cure the trouble, and began taking them. I took the Pills steadily for six or eight weeks and they completely cured the trouble. This was several years ago and I have never been bothered with it since."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from Dr. J. C. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"Janey Cannuck"

By RAMBLER.
On the trail up into the great Peace River country a newspaper writer fell into conversation with a lone settler and his wife.
"Yes," the settler drawled, "a body sees tarnation many people passing on this trail. There's maybe one a day!—besides the regular freight people and that sort of thing. There's all kinds! But the one he remembers most was a woman—Votter! Now if you'd know her maybe? Queer kind of a woman! Makes you feel when you're talkin' t' her as if she was six feet six and broad to match. Her voice is big and her mind is big."
"—and her heart too," chimed in the wife.
"I guess so! But when she's gone, and you look down the trail after her, why she's not so big at all. Not more'n about five foot or thereabouts. D'ye know her?"
"What she do?" asked the newspaper man. "Squaw? Settler's wife? Missionary? What is she?"
"Squaw! Say, you don't know this woman! She just talks and listens and makes folks feel better. She's the cheeriest person you ever meet. Why when she struck our house—Mary here was—well that's no matter. But that woman sure did us some good. Just like wind in a stuffy room, or sunlight in a potato pit, or clear water when you're thirsty. Let's see. Her name's Murphy. Know anybody by that name?"
"Mrs. Arthur Murphy—Janey Cannuck."
"That's it. A writer woman."
"Why yes, I've heard of her. She writes stuff about this country."
"Aye."
"Writes well."
"Writes well! Maybe. We ain't much on writin' here. But she's sure some fine woman. I'd rather see her people from that trail than the freights any day. Wouldn't you, Mary?"
"Janey Cannuck" is the wife of Rev. Arthur Murphy, a former rector of Trinity Church, Watford.

Life of the Late Mr. A. McLachlan

Mr. Archibald McLachlan, who passed to his reward on the morning of Friday, August 8th, at the age of 73 years, was born in Argyleshire, Scotland. At the age of 14 years he emigrated to Canada with his parents. Argyleshire is one of the Highland Shires of Scotland, and the people from that noted shire, like the one from Ross-shire and Inverness-shire, spoke the Gaelic language. Soon after arriving in Canada, his father, the late Mr. Duncan McLachlan, took up land in Eantskillen Tp., Lambton Co. About the year 1868 the farm on the Townline, then practically all bush, was bought, and here Mr. McLachlan commenced as a young man to live out a home for himself. He pursued this course single handed for about two years, in the meantime looking about for a helpmate, in which he was wisely directed by the choice of Miss Elizabeth Hume, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hume, of Warwick, for a wife. The family consists of Alex, Arthur and Miss Mary at home, Captain W.H. McLachlan of Cleveland and Mrs. Sproule of Verner. Besides a loving wife, three sons and two daughters, he leaves behind four brothers and one sister. One brother and one sister (Mrs. Hume) live in Etobicoke, one on the twelfth line, one in Brantford and Donald on the townline east, all of whom, like himself, command high respect. Mr. McLachlan was a man of great energy and sound judgment. In religion he was a Presbyterian and in his earlier days, like many other Scotch boys, had memorized many Psalms and portions of Paul's Epistles, and during his illness he spent much time repeating portions of God's word and meditating on these portions. In prayer he had great freedom in the Gaelic language, much more than in English, and often during his illness he was overheard conversing with God, to whom he was ever grateful for all his mercies. Days before the call came he carefully arranged all the details of his funeral services which were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Pring of the Methodist church, and Rev. Mr. Ross of the Presbyterian church. The funeral sermon was preached by Mr. Ross, who spoke from the texts 2 Cor. 5:1, and Heb. 4:2. The selections sung were the 23 Psalm known as "The Shepherd's Psalm," and "Nearer my God to Thee." The funeral was largely attended, the remains being laid away in the Wyoming cemetery.—Wyoming Enterprise.
