Town, P. E. I.

The meeting at St. Stephen promises to be the most successful in the history of the school. The place is admirably adapted for scientific work and the citizens will thoroughly provide for the comfort and entertainment of the visitors. The staff of incomplete the less treaching. At the annual session of the Massachusetts Grand Division, S. of T., held in Boston last week, Fred E. Bath of Lynn, formerly of Bridgetown was elected one of the grand officers for that state. Mr. Bath's many friends here will be glad to learn of the laboratory and field work the most improved methods of scientific to this activity, interest and services in Division work, and will also be interested in the following clipping from the Boston Post, which shows our former townsman fighting a losing game in the deliberations of the Grand Division.

"The Grand Division, Sons of Temperance of Massachusetts, which has been in existence nearly 60 years, decided yesterday to permit dancing at any of the meetings of the subordinate Divisions.

There are 63 of these subordinate Divisions and each has a church affiliation.

For more than half a century the Sons of Temperance have frowned upon the Agence asserting that it was a

THE TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The Teachers' Institute of inspectoral district No. 4 will hold its annual meeting in Masonic Hall, Annapo, is Royal, on Thursday and Friday the 8th and 9th days of May. An attractive program has been prepared which it is believed will prove highly beneficial to all who attend. In addition to local talent, Dr. Hall of the Normal School and Prof. Kidner of the Macdonald Manual Training School will contribute lessons on their special subjects. These gentlemen together with the Supt. of Education and others, are expected to aded by most of the delegates who live outside Boston.

Mr. F. E. Bath of Lynn said he was opposed to dancing and remarked:

"It will turn the Sons of Temperance rooms into a dance hall; it will cause the members to have short meetings so they can have a long dance, and worst of all it will bring in members who come simply for the dancing. If the only way to keep the society alive is to sacrifice our principles, the sooner the Sons of Temperance go out of existence, the better."

The debate on the dancing resolution began at 2 o'clock and continued for more than four hours, when a vote was taken. The result of the balloting showed 68 in favor of dancing and 57 opposed."—Boston Post.
