

little to the final settlement of the disastrous struggle between the two great Companies of the Hudson Bay and the Northwest."

The editor of the Transactions has added several illustrations which will give greater interest to the Diary, and has made a few additions to the notes carefully prepared by Mr. Francis N. A. Garry, the grandson of the diarist.