

Term haii haii of Iroquoian mourning and Condolence Songs," coming to the conclusion that "this term haii haii, now used in the condoling council of the League of the Six nations of the Iroquois, had its origin in a supposed imitation of a supposed cry of a supposed being."

MONTCALM'S RAZORS.—Mrs. Helen S. Peck Harding, a resident of Phelps, Ontario County, New York, has in her possession the razors used by General Montcalm and found in his baggage. The handles are of ivory, and the blades, three in number, of extremely fine steel, are so arranged as to fasten in a steel grooved back when in use.—C. GARNET, in Magazine of American History, vol. I, p. 760.

NEW BRUNSWICK MAGAZINE.—Contents of the February number: Old Times in Victoria Ward, by I. Allen Jack; Governor Thomas Carleton, by W. F. Ganong; At Portland Point, (8th paper), by Rev. W. O. Raymond; Our first Families, (5th paper), by James Hannay; The cruise of the "Rechab", by W. K. Reynolds; An Historic Spot, by J. F. Herbin; In the Editor's Chair; Provincial Chronology; Provincial Bibliography.

CANADIAN HISTORY.—We acknowledge the receipt with thanks of the Educational Review Supplementary Readings, entitled Canadian History, and published in St. John, N. B. The four numbers issued, at the nominal price of 10 cents each, contain interesting contributions by G. F. Matthews, Jas. Vroom, W. F. Ganong, G. U. Hay, James Hannay, Sir J. G. Bourinot, Rev. W. O. Raymond, Henry Piers, I. Allen Jack, F. E. Murray, V. H. Palstsits and others.

NOTES AND QUERIES

QUESTIONS

107. JEAN-BAPTISTE.—Depuis quand se sert-on des mots Jean-Baptiste pour désigner les Canadiens-Français?
ROL.

108. CANADIANS IN THE REVOLUTIONARY ARMY.—Col. Rudolphus Ritzema says, in his declaration laid before the Continental Congress, assembled at Philadel-