

A very pleasant feature of the trip to the International Fat Stock Show at Chicago, was the banquet of the American-O. A. C. Old Boys' Union, held in the Sherman House, on Thursday evening, December 4th.

This was the Third Annual Banquet of the Union, and was the largest yet held.

An excellent spread was provided, due to the splendid arrangements made by Prof. Carlyle, the President of the Union, and Prof. J. J. Ferguson, its Secretary.

After doing justice to the menu speeches were the order. Prof. Shaw gave an address on the importance of Canadians keeping up their reputation for integrity and honesty.

Many reminiscences of O. A. C. life were brought up by the old boys in their speeches.

The invited guests were Mr. W. E. Skinner, General Manager of the Stock Yards Association, and a former Canadian; Mr. Cheeseman, Superintendent Chicago City Milk Supply; and Mr. John Gosling.

Those present were Profs. Shaw, Kennedy, Carlyle, Ferguson, Cumming, Messrs. Cheeseman, Skinner, Gosling, Greig, Hubbard, Jas. Atkinson, G. I. Christie, A. C. Wilson, W. J. Black, G. A. Hunt, A. Atkinson, W. J. Rutherford, A. P. Ketchen, L. S. Klinck, D. T. Elderkin, F. M. Logan, and W. H. Gunn.

It was decided to fix Thursday evening of the Fat Stock Show week as the evening for the Annual Banquet.

The old officers of the Union were re-elected by acclamation.
