Homer Allen, priest of psalmist, says you can't lie with the hand shut. It instinctively opens. It is also worth nothing, says an exchange, that you can't refute a lie with the hand open. It instinctively shuts.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. WINSLOW'S Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. 25c a bottle.

The conceirge of a very badly-kept house in Paris hung up at the foot of the stairs a card inscribed as follows:—"Please wipe your feet on the mat." A wag wrote underneath, "As you come out."

Great age carries with it a certain respectability whether it attaches to a person or thing. This is seen particularly in the case of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, which is the most marvelous internal and external remedy ever discovered. It ought to be kept in every house.

While working on the rock cut on the east side of the river near Lehigh, Ia., the workmen found a buffalo's horn imbedded in the rock thirty feet below the surface. It was in such an excellent state of preservation that the rings could be easily counted on it.

If farmers and others continue to buy dust and ashes put up in big packs and sold for condition powders, it would be our fault. We have exposed the swindle time and again. Sheridan's Powders are the only kind we know of worth carrying home.

5,000 COPIES SOLD "Reasons for Being a Churchman."

By the Rev. Arthur Wilde Little Rector St. Paul's, Portland, Me.

Neatly bound in Cloth, 282 pages, Price $1.10 by mail.

"One of the most perfect instruments for sound instruction concerning the Church that has been offered to Churchmen. The whole temper of the book is courteous, kindly and humble. This book ought to be in the hands of every Churchman. Of all books upon this important subject it is the most readable. It is popular and attractive in style, in the best sense. We commend it most heartily to every Clergyman for personal help and parochial use. We would, if we could, place a copy in the hands of every member of the English-speaking race. And we are assured, should once begun, it will be read with interest, from preface to conclusion. No better text book could be found for a class of adults, who desire to give a reason for their faith, and be Churchmen in reality.—Church Record.
