It is further understood that nothing contained in this Convention shall with the International Eight of Convention prohibit the International Fisheries Commission from conducting fishing operations tions for investigation purposes at any time.

ARTICLE II

Every national or inhabitant, vessel or boat of the United States of America or of Canada engaged in halibut fishing on the high seas in violation of this Convention or of any regulation of the Convention or of any regulation adopted under the provisions thereof may and seized by the duly outhorized of seized by the duly authorized officers of either High Contracting Party and detained by the officers making and detained by the officers making such seizure and delivered as soon as practicable to an authorized official of the to an authorized official of the country to which such person, vessel or belongs, at the nearest point to the all belongs, at the nearest point to the place of seizure, or elsewhere, as may be agreed upon. The authorities of the national services of the national services are services as may be agreed upon. agreed upon. The authorities of the nation to which such person, vessel or belongs alone shall have jurisdiction to which such person, vessel or belongs. belongs alone shall have jurisdiction to conduct prosecutions for the violation of the provisions of this Converting of the provisions of this Convention, or any regulations which may be adopted in pursuance of its provisions and to impursuance of its provisions and the in pursuance of its provisions, and to impose penalties for such violations, and the witnesses and proofs processors for such violations, with the witnesses and proofs necessary for such prosecutions, so far as such provides the control of the nesses or proofs are under the control of the other High Contracting Party shall be furnished with all reasonable promptitude to the authorities having jurisdiction to conduct the present is a such prosecution. olgn jurisdiction to conduct the prosecutions.

Each High Contracting Party shall be responsible for the proper observance of this Convention, or of any regulation adopted under the provisions thereof in the portion of its waters covered thereby.

ARTICLE III

net.

The High Contracting Parties agree to continue under this Convention the mission as at present constituted and help the continue under this Convention to the contracting Parties agree to continue under this Convention to the contracting Parties agree to continue under this Convention to the contracting Parties agree to continue under this Convention to the contracting Parties agree to continue under this Convention to the contracting Parties agree to continue under this Convention to the contracting Parties agree to continue under this Convention to the contracting Parties agree to continue under this Convention to the contracting Parties agree to continue under this Convention to the contracting Parties agree to continue under this Convention to the contraction Commission as at present constituted and known as the International Fisheric Commission, established by the Convention for the preservation of the halibutishery, signed at Washington, March 2, 1992 fishery, signed at Washington, March 2, 1923, and continued under the Convention signed at Ottawa, May 2, 1920. tion signed at Ottawa, May 9, 1930, consisting of four members, two appoints by each Party, which Commission at all by each Party, which Commission shall make such investigations as are necessary into the life history of the bell make such investigations as are sary into the life history of the halibut in the convention waters and shall publish a report of its activities from the convention waters and convention waters. publish a report of its activities from time to time. Each of the High contracting Parties shall have power to fill the light of the High contracting Parties shall have power to fill the light of the High contraction. tracting Parties shall have power to fill, and shall fill from time to time, vacancies which may occur in its representation. which may occur in its representation on the Commission. Each of the Contracting Parties shall pay the salaries and Contracting Parties shall pay the salaries and expenses of its own members, conjoint expenses incurred by the Commission shall be salaried and expenses of its own members, conjugate the commission of the salaries and expenses of its own members, conjugate the commission of the salaries and expenses of its own members, conjugate the salaries and expenses of its own members, conjugate the salaries and expenses of its own members, conjugate the salaries and expenses of its own members, conjugate the salaries and expenses of its own members, conjugate the salaries and expenses of its own members, conjugate the salaries and expenses of its own members, conjugate the salaries and expenses of its own members, conjugate the salaries and expenses of its own members, conjugate the salaries and expenses of its own members, conjugate the salaries and expenses of its own members, conjugate the salaries and expenses of its own members, conjugate the salaries and expenses of its own members. joint expenses incurred by the Commission shall be paid by the two High tracting Parties in equal moieties. tracting Parties in equal moieties.

The High Contracting Parties agree that for the purposes of protecting and erving the halibut fishery of the Northern B. the International Fisheries Commission, with the approval of the President in the United States of America and of the Covernment of the President in conserving the halibut fishery of the Northern Pacific Ocean and Bering the United States of America and of the Governor General of Canada, may, the respect of the nationals and inhabitants and fishing vessels and boats of United States of America and of Canada fishing vessels and boats of the United States of America and of Canada fishing vessels and boats of the United States of America and of Canada fishing vessels and boats of the United States of America and of Canada fishing vessels and boats of the United States of America and of Canada fishing vessels and boats of the United States of America and of the Governor General of Canada fishing vessels and boats of the United States of America and of Canada fishing vessels and boats of the United States of America and of Canada fishing vessels and boats of the United States of America and of Canada fishing vessels and boats of the United States of America and of Canada fishing vessels and boats of the United States of America and of Canada fishing vessels and boats of the United States of America and of Canada fishing vessels and boats of the United States of America and of Canada fishing vessels and boats of the United States of America and of Canada fishing vessels and boats of the United States of America and of Canada fishing vessels and boats of the United States of America and of Canada fishing vessels and boats of the United States of America and of Canada fishing vessels and the United States of America and

United States of America and of Canada, from time to time,

(b) limit the catch of halibut to be taken from each area within the season which fishing for halibut is allowed.

during which fishing for halibut is allowed;

(c) prohibit departure of vessels from any port or place, or from when ving vessel or station, to any area for halibut for the when receiving vessel or station, to any area for halibut fishing, after any date which in the judgment of the International Fisher in the judgment of the International Fisheries Commission the vessels fishing have departed for that area prior to that date or which are known to be that area shall suffice to catch the limit which have departed for the state of the state in that area shall suffice to catch the limit which shall have been set for that area under section (b) of this paragraph: (d) fix the size and character of halibut fishing appliances to be used in area;

any area;