

2. No patent application with respect to any such classified invention or discovery may be filed in any country not a party to this Agreement, except as may be mutually agreed and subject to Article X.

3. Appropriate secrecy or prohibition orders will be issued for the purpose of effectuating this provision.

ARTICLE X—Security

A. The Governments of the United States of America and Canada have adopted similar security safeguards and standards in connection with their respective atomic energy programmes. The two governments agree that all classified information and material, including equipment and devices, within the scope of this Agreement, will be safeguarded in accordance with the security safeguards and standards prescribed by the security arrangements between the Commission and the Atomic Energy Control Board of Canada, in effect on June 15th, 1955.

B. It is agreed that the recipient party of any material, including equipment and devices, and of any classified information under this Agreement, shall not further disseminate such information, or transfer such material, including equipment and devices, to any other country without the written consent of the originating country. It is further agreed that neither party to this Agreement will transfer to any other country any equipment or device, the transfer of which would involve the disclosure of any classified information received from the other party, without the written consent of such other party.

ARTICLE XI—Guaranties prescribed by the United States Atomic Energy Act of 1954

The Government of Canada Guaranties that:

A. The security safeguards and standards prescribed by the security arrangements between the Commission and the Atomic Energy Control Board of Canada, in effect on June 15th, 1955, will be maintained with respect to all classified information and materials, including equipment and devices, exchanged under this Agreement.

B. No material, including equipment and devices, transferred to the Government of Canada or authorized persons under its jurisdiction by purchase or otherwise pursuant to this Agreement will be used for atomic weapons, or for research on or development of atomic weapons, or for any other military purpose.

C. No material, including equipment and devices, or any Restricted Data transferred to the Government of Canada or authorized persons under its jurisdiction pursuant to this Agreement will be transferred to unauthorized persons or beyond the jurisdiction of the Government of Canada, except as the Commission may agree to such a transfer to another nation, and then only if the transfer of the material or Restricted Data is within the scope of an Agreement for Co-operation between the United States and the other nation.
