

Steps are being taken to implement some of the recommendations contained in a 1988 study by the Bureau of Management Consulting relating to an improved database and a more comprehensive tracking, retrieval and control system covering all External Affairs ATIP operations.