

representation in the proceedings before the arbitral tribunal; expenses of the chairman and other costs shall be paid in equal parts by the two Governments. The arbitral tribunal may adopt other regulations concerning costs. In all other matters, the arbitral tribunal shall regulate its own procedures. Only the respective Governments may request arbitral procedure and participate in it.

7. (a) If either Government considers it desirable to modify the provisions of this agreement, this procedure may be carried out through a request for consultations and/or by correspondence and shall begin not later than sixty (60) days from the date of the request.

(b) The modifications of the agreement agreed between the two Governments shall enter into force upon their confirmation on a date which shall be mutually agreed upon by an exchange of notes.

In the event that the Government of the United Republic of Cameroon approves the proposed texts, the Embassy of Canada proposes that this Note, which is authentic in English and in French, as well as the reply through diplomatic channels of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, constitute an agreement between the Government of Cameroon and the Government of Canada, which shall enter into force on the date of the reply by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. This agreement shall continue in force until terminated by either Government on six months' notice in writing to the other Government. In the event of termination, the provisions of this agreement shall continue to apply to insurance contracts issued by the Government of Canada while the agreement was in force, for the duration of these contracts. The agreement shall not continue to apply, however, to such contracts for a period longer than fifteen years after its termination.

The Embassy of Canada avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the United Republic of Cameroon the assurance of its high-est consideration.
