

It shall not, however, apply to the following products:

- in vitro diagnostic medical devices
- devices incorporating, as an integral part, a substance which, if used separately, may be considered to be a medicinal product
- breast implants
- medical devices incorporating tissues of human or animal origin. However, medical devices incorporating tissues of animal origin and where the device is intended to come into contact with intact skin only, will be included within the scope of this Sectoral Annex.

Both Parties may, however, decide by common agreement, to extend the application of this Annex to the aforementioned or any other medical devices.

3. CONFIDENTIALITY

- 3.1. Each Party will protect from public disclosure any non-public confidential technical, commercial and scientific information, including trade secrets and proprietary information provided by the other Party.
