

In short, we hold the view that UNITAR must have a large measure of autonomy if it is to have the flexibility for quick action recommended by the Secretary-General in his statement of last March.

I thank you, Mr. Chairman.