

The House then resumed the adjourned Debate on the proposed motion of Mr. McMillan, seconded by Mr. Breton:—

That the following Address be presented to His Excellency the Governor General of Canada:—

To His Excellency Field Marshal The Right Honourable the Viscount Alexander of Tunis, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Companion of the Most Exalted Order of the Star of India, Companion of the Distinguished Service Order, upon whom has been conferred the Decoration of the Military Cross, Governor General and Commander-in-Chief of Canada.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY:

We, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the House of Commons of Canada, in Parliament assembled, beg leave to offer our humble thanks to Your Excellency for the gracious Speech which Your Excellency has addressed to both Houses of Parliament.

And on the proposed motion of Mr. Drew, seconded by Mr. Graydon, in amendment thereto:—That the following words be added to the Address:

“We regret that your Excellency's advisers have failed,

- (1) to give this nation leadership in the face of the present grave danger; and
- (2) to bring into being forces necessary to enable Canada to defend itself and discharge its international obligations; and
- (3) to take effective measures to combat inflation and the rapidly rising cost of living.”

And on the proposed motion of Mr. Coldwell, seconded by Mr. Knowles, in amendment to the said proposed amendment: That the following words be added to the amendment:

“We further regret that while Your Excellency's advisers have generally followed a constructive course in relation to the Korean dispute, they have in relation to the resolution branding China as an aggressor supported a course which is premature and unwise at this particular moment, and which should not have been pursued until the methods of peaceful negotiation had been completely exhausted.”

And after still further Debate thereon, the question being put on the said proposed amendment to the proposed amendment; it was negatived, on division.

And the Debate continuing on the proposed amendment to the main motion; the said Debate was, on motion of Mr. Herridge, adjourned.

At eleven o'clock, p.m., Mr. Speaker adjourned the House without question put, pursuant to Standing Order 7, until tomorrow, at three o'clock, p.m.
