

extremely well managed. All the nice things the former minister said about the value of this sort of housing are there.

I see that it is six o'clock, Madam Speaker. I will have to wait for the continuance of my speech to explain to the minister why I feel he is not following this through with vigour. I want assurance from him that he not only accepts, but intends to translate these glowing words into action.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Sharp: Madam Speaker, I would like to announce the business for tomorrow for the guidance of hon. members. It is the intention to call first Bill C-49, to amend the Income Tax Act, for third reading. When that is disposed of we will revert to the bill which has just been under discussion, namely, Bill C-46.

The Acting Speaker (Mrs. Morin): It being six o'clock, this House stands adjourned until two o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

At 6.01 p.m. the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to Standing Order.
