SERVICES during the War of 1756—DesBarres particularly honoured with the Approbation of his Sovereign, as well as of Lord Amherst, General Wolfe, Marquis Townshend, &c: [P. 1. N 1 to 13]

ATLANTIC NEPTUNE.

ENGAGED in 1763, under the Direction of the Board of Admiralty, to make a Survey and take the Soundings of the then unexplored Coasts and Harbours of Nova Scotia. Encouragements held out: “to be rewarded in a manner adequate to his Diligence, Ability, and the Value of his Performance, and promoted in his Military Profession.”

Having exerted himself in this arduous Service until the End of 1773, he returned to England and laid his Performance before the King. His Majesty was pleased to order the same to be engraved.

Nautical Charts of several other Parts of the American Coasts being much wanted for the Operations of War, he was, in pursuance of the Royal Commands, farther engaged in the Construction and Completion thereof until the Year 1784.

Instances of the Utility of his Labours in the Period of the Prosecution of the Work—It has been productive of
